“Most earnestly do we desire that our people should be accustomed to sing together, and for that object we wish that in all our schools the children should be taught the elements of music, and thus choral singing would soon become almost universal in our churches.”

*Pastoral Letter of the Cardinal Archbishop and the Bishops of the Province of New York.
September, 1883.*

The object of this Manual is to aid the people in complying with the desires of the Most Rev. Archbishops and Bishops, by placing in their hands a collection of Hymns and Chants, containing all that they may be expected to sing in Church, and so arranged as to require the least amount of rehearsal. One of the principal difficulties in the way of Congregational Singing is the scarcity of English hymns suited to large numbers of voices, and intended for use in the Church. The compiler has endeavored to supply this deficiency by drawing largely on the grand old hymns of Catholic ages, which are full of devotion and impress themselves on the mind, each by its own character, never wearying with repetition. Hymns intended for children have not been distinguished from the others; but they are easily known by the freer motion of their melody.

In order to interest the people in the solemn offices of the Church, no less than in private devotions, and especially to facilitate the formation of large Church Choirs, all the High Masses of the Gradual, and all the Vespers which may occur on Sundays and Holidays, have been given in full. In the seven or eight years, which every child spends at school, there is ample time for learning the entire office of the Church. If therefore the means proposed by the Fathers of the Council be adopted, we mean the teaching of music in schools, as it had been customary and obligatory in all Catholic schools and universities, from the time of St. Benedict, and the great scholars Lanfranc and St. Anselm, down to the reformation, every church will soon possess a numerous and efficient choir, without spending the sums which have now to be sacrificed, wherever good singing is desired.

All the Chants in this Manual are taken from the books lately approved by the Sacred Congregation of Rites. The Psalms have been written out according to the principles of the best modern as well as ancient writers on Psalmody.

To obtain perfect chanting, it now only remains to insist on a correct pronounciation of the Latin text. Every psalm should be studied as follows : The teacher reads aloud the first verse, taking one word at a time, and obliging the pupils to repeat it after him. When the entire verse has been spelled out in this manner, the teacher begins it again, taking a whole phrase, or part of a phrase, the pupils repeating the same. He must not pass to another verse until the first has been fully mastered by the whole class. After reading through a few verses, he may vary the exercise by allowing the pupils to sing the words to the melody.

The principal attention must be given to those cadences, which may begin either on an accented, or on an unaccented syllable. They are the final cadence of the first Tone,—the middle and the final cadences of the fourth, and the final cadences of the sixth and eighth.

The compiler takes this opportunity to express his sincerest thanks to all those, whose assistance has enabled him to complete this work within less than a year after the Council.

Also to Rev. A. YOUNG, C. S. P., for his kindness in allowing the use of No. 129.

NOTE.—The ready sale of our first edition (5000 copies in six months) clearly proves the earnestness with which both clergy and people follow the directions of the last Provincial Council. As to the practical usefulness of the Manual in its present form, it will be sufficient to say, if we may speak from our own experience, that for the past two months the children of our parochial schools have been enabled to sing the proper Vespers of every Sunday, together with several high masses and a large number of hymns for low mass, Lenten devotions, novenas, etc.; and all these have been learned without taking away from the regular singing lessons given at each school.

MORNING PRAYERS.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Blessed be the holy and undivided Trinity, now and forever. Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. The earth is full of Thy glory. Glory be to the Father. Glory be to the Son. Glory be to the Holy Ghost.

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name ; Thy kingdom come ; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread ; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us ; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Angelical Salutation.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee ; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth ; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord ; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell, the third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Confiteor.

I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary, ever Virgin, to blessed Michael, the Archangel, to blessed John, the Baptist, to the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, blessed Michael, the Archangel, blessed John, the Baptist, the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May the Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to life everlasting. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution, and remission of all our sins. Amen.

Act of Adoration.

O great God and Sovereign Lord of heaven and earth, I prostrate myself before Thee. With all the angels and saints I adore Thee. I acknowledge Thee to be my Creator and Sovereign Lord, my first beginning and last end. I render to Thee the homage of my being and life. I submit myself to Thy holy will; and I devote myself to Thy divine service this day and forever.

Act of Faith.

O my God, I firmly believe all the sacred truths which Thy Holy Catholic Church believes and teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, Who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

Act of Hope.

O my God, relying on Thy infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain the pardon of my sins, the assistance of Thy grace, and life everlasting; through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

Act of Charity.

O my God, I love Thee above all things with my whole heart and soul, because Thou art infinitely perfect and worthy of all love; I love also my neighbor as myself, for the love of Thee. I forgive all who have injured me, and ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

Act of Contrition.

O my God, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee, and I detest my sins most sincerely, because they displease Thee, my God, Who art infinitely good and perfect, and I firmly purpose by Thy holy grace never more to offend Thee. Amen.

Act of Thanksgiving.

O Glorious Trinity! I praise Thee and give Thee thanks for the numberless benefits Thou hast bestowed upon me. I thank Thee, O heavenly Father, for having created me to Thine own image and likeness, and for having preserved me to this day. I thank Thee, O merciful Son, for having redeemed me by Thy death, and so often fed me with Thy precious body and blood. I thank Thee, O Holy Spirit, for having cleansed my soul by Thy grace in holy baptism, for having called me to the true faith, and so often washed me from my sins in the sacrament of penance. I thank Thee, O most bountiful God, for preserving me this night, and granting me this day to serve Thee. I earnestly invite all the saints of heaven and earth to join with me in praise and thanksgiving for Thy infinite goodness.

Act of Petition.

O Lord God Almighty, Who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day, defend us in the same by Thy mighty power, that we may fall into no sin, but that our words may always proceed, and our thoughts and actions be directed, to the performance of Thy justice. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God forever and ever. Amen.

Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts ; that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His resurrection.
Through the same Christ
our Lord. Amen.

EVENING PRAYERS.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Blessed be the holy and undivided Trinity, now and forever. Amen.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Creed.

An Act of Thanksgiving.

I most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for all the mercies and blessings Thou hast bestowed upon me and upon Thy whole Church; and particularly for watching over me during this day, and preserving me from so many evils, and favoring me with so many graces and inspirations. O, let me never more be ungrateful, my God, Who art so good and gracious unto me.

Ask for Light to discover your Sins.

O Holy Ghost, eternal Source of light, remove my darkness and dispel those shades that hide from me the filth and enormity of my offences. Show me, I beseech Thee, the sins I have this day committed in thought, word, and action. Grant me a feeling sense of them, that I may detest them all from the bottom of my heart, and dread nothing so much as ever to commit them hereafter.

Here make a short examination of Conscience.

An Act of Contrition and Resolution of Amendment.

O Eternal God, against Whom I have sinned, I wish from my heart that I had never offended Thee; but as I have been so unhappy, grant me now the grace never to offend Thee again. Thou willest not the death of the sinner, but rather that he be converted and live. Convert me then, and I shall be converted. Have mercy on me according to Thy great mercy, and according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my iniquities ; I renounce all sin, and firmly purpose to avoid all occasions of it, and to walk henceforth in the paths of Thy commandments. This is my fixed resolution, which I hope I shall faithfully keep, relying upon Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Litany of the Blessed Virgin.

Pray for us.

Let us pray.

Defend, we beseech Thee, O Lord, through the intercession of the ever blessed Virgin Mary, this Thy family from all misfortune; and mercifully deign to guard against the snares of the enemy Thy servants prostrate, in the sincerity of their hearts, before Thee. Through Christ, our Lord.

To the Holy Family.

Jesus, Mary, Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul.

Jesus, Mary, Joseph, assist me in my last agony.

Jesus, Mary, Joseph, may I expire peacefully in your holy company.

Prayer.

Visit, we beseech Thee, O Lord, this habitation, and drive far from it all the snares of the enemy. Let Thy holy angels dwell herein to preserve us in peace, and may Thy blessing be always upon us: through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the Lord bless us, and keep us, and deliver us from all evil; and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Let me sleep in Thy peace, O Lord. I offer Thee this sleep, that I may pay homage to Thee, and gain strength for the morrow. Into Thy hands I commend my spirit. Holy Virgin, dispel the illusions of night, which may trouble the peace and purity of my soul.

Through thy sacred Virginity and Immaculate Conception, obtain for me, O purest Virgin, purity of soul and body.

Recite the Hail Mary three times in honor of the Immaculate Conception.

DEVOTIONS FOR MASS.

Prayer before Mass.

O Father of mercies and God of all consolation! Who, not content, that Thy only begotten Son should have once been offered a bleeding Victim upon the cross for our salvation, wouldst have the same most acceptable oblation daily repeated in an unbloody manner, to renew in our souls the fruit thereof: grant, we beseech Thee, that we may assist at this adorable mystery of Thy power, wisdom, and goodness, with such reverence, attention, and love, that we may plentifully partake of the fruits it is intended to produce in us, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

At the Beginning of Mass.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

It is in Thy name, O adorable Trinity! it is to honor Thee, and to do Thee homage, that I presume to assist at this most holy and august sacrifice. Permit me then, O Lord! to unite my intention with that of Thy minister, in offering up this precious Victim; and give me now the sentiments with which I should have been filled on Mount Calvary, had I been witness of the bloody sacrifice offered thereon.

Recite the Confiteor with the server.

O most holy Virgin, and ye angels and saints of heaven, I humbly beseech you to intercede for me. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to listen to their prayers. Grant to the ardor of their supplications what Thou mayest justly refuse to the coldness of mine, and to their services, so pleasing in Thy sight, that pardon to which my offences can have no claim.

*Gloria in excelsis Deo, et in terra pax hominibus bonæ voluntatis; laudamus te; benedicimus te, adoramus te; glorificamus te, gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam, Domine Deus, Rex cœlestis, Deus Pater omnipotens. Domine Fili unigenite Jesu Christe; Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris. Qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. Qui tollis, peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram. Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis. Quoniam tu solus Sanctus, tu solus Dominus, tu solus Altissimus, Jesu Christe cum Sancto Spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

*Glory be to God on high, and peace on earth to men of good will; we praise Thee; we bless Thee; we adore Thee; we glorify Thee; we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son, O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, Who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Thou Who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou Who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For Thou only art holy; Thou only art Lord; Thou only art most high, O Jesus Christ, together with the Holy Ghost, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

* The Gloria in excelsis is not said in Advent, Lent, or in Masses for the dead.

The Collect.

This prayer is so called, because, in it the priest lays before God the necessities of his people, and their desires collected, in a manner, together. Whence, turning to the congregation, he says, Oremus (Let us pray), inviting them to unite with him in the petition he is about to make.

Almighty and eternal God, we humbly beseech Thee to look down upon this congregation from Thy heavenly sanctuary, and graciously hear those prayers of Thy Church addressed to Thee for us all by the ministry of Thy priest.

Grant us, in Thy infinite mercy, pardon for our sins, health of mind and body, peace in our days, unity and increase of Catholic faith, fervor of charity, sincere devotion, patience in suffering, and every thing conducive to Thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

Return God thanks for having called you to the knowledge of His law. Submit to it with perfect docility, and beg of Him to extend our holy religion over the whole world.

O eternal God! Who never ceasest to excite us to the worship and love of Thy holy name, and to arm us against all the attacks of the world, the flesh, and the devil, by the public ministry of Thy Church, by the doctrine of Thy prophets and apostles, and by many other holy admonitions; grant we may faithfully attend to these lessons of salvation, that thus our knowledge of Thy law may never rise in judgment against us, but guide us securely to Thee, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gospel.

Look on the Gospel, which you are now going to hear, as the rule of your faith and morals; a rule which Christ Himself has drawn up, which, at your baptism, you solemnly promised to follow, and by which you shall most certainly be judged.

If possible, try to catch the words of the Holy Text. Declare to God that you embrace His commands, and will walk faithfully in the way He has marked out for you. Beg the grace to keep this resolution.

The Creed.

Recite your Creed as an Act of Faith.

CREDO in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem cœli et terræ, visibilibus omnium et invisibilium.

Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum. Et ex Patre natum ante omnia sæcula. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero. Genitum non factum, consubstantialem Patri, per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem descendit de cœlis. Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine, ET HOMO FACTUS EST. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis sub Pontio Pilato, passus et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die secundum Scripturas. Et ascendit in cœlum, sedet ad dexteram Patris. Et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos et mortuos, cujus regni non erit finis.

Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum et vivificantem; qui ex Patre Filioque procedit; qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur; qui locutus est per Prophetas. Et unam

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God of God; Light of Light; true God of true God; begotten not made; consubstantial with the Father, by Whom all things were made. Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary: AND WAS MADE MAN. He was crucified also for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate, and was buried. The third day He rose again according to the Scriptures: and ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father: and He shall come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead: of Whose kingdom there shall be no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Life-giver, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son: Who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; Who spake

Sanctam, Catholicam et Apostolicam Ecclesiam. Confiteor unum Baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum, et vitam venturi sæculi. Amen.	by the prophets. And one holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Offertory.

What will you offer to God Who is here about to offer Himself for you? Some voluntary privation during the day, an enmity laid aside, renewed application to study, etc., etc.

O holy Father, Almighty and Eternal God! how unworthy soever I be to appear in Thy presence, I dare to offer Thee this host, by the hands of the priest, with that intention which Christ my Saviour had, when He first instituted this sacrifice, and which He has, at this very instant, that He immolates Himself for us. I offer it in acknowledgment of Thy supreme dominion over me and all creatures. I offer it in expiation of my crimes, and in thanksgiving for all Thy benefits. I offer it to obtain of Thy infinite goodness, for my parents, benefactors, friends, and enemies, all those precious graces which only through Him can be obtained, Who is the JUST ONE by excellence, and Who became a Victim for the sins of men.

Accept, then, O Lord! this ineffable sacrifice, as a sweet odor, and permit me to unite to this sacred oblation the sacrifice of my soul and body, and whatever I am or have. Change me, O Lord! and make me a new creature in Christ, as Thou art going to change this bread and wine by Thy power, to make them the body and blood of Thy Son.

The Washing of the Fingers.

O, what cleanness of heart should we not bring with us to this great sacrifice! But alas! I am a poor, unclean sinner. O, wash me, dear Lord, from all the stains of sin, in the blood of the Lamb, that I may be worthy to be present at these heavenly mysteries.

When the Priest says, Orate Fratres.

Receive, O Lord, from the hands of the priest, the sacrifice which is now prepared for the praise and the glory of Thy name, for our benefit, and that of all Thy holy Church. Graciously hear the prayers which she now offers to Thee by the mouth of her minister, and mercifully grant us all the graces which Thou knowest to be necessary for our salvation.

The Preface.

Unite with the angels in their song of praise to the Divinity, and, with them, often repeat, during the solemn part of the Mass, the words :

Sanctus! Sanctus! Sanctus! Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt cœli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy! Holy! Holy! Lord God of Sabaoth; the heavens and the earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Canon.

Represent here to yourself the altar as a throne of mercy, upon which Christ is to sit, where you are entitled to present yourself, to expose to Him your wants, to ask for blessings, and to obtain them. Can He, Who giveth us His only Son, refuse us anything?

O Father of mercy! graciously receive, by the hands of the priest, this most holy sacrifice in union with that which Thy beloved Son offered up to Thee during His whole life, at His last supper, and on the cross. Look down on Thy Christ, Thy dearest and only-begotten, in Whom Thou art always well pleased; and by the infinite merits of His incarnation, of His nativity, of His tears, labors, sufferings, and death, have mercy upon me, and upon all those for whom I ought to pray (here name the particular persons,) my parents, brethren, friends, benefactors, relations, and those who have injured me, or whom I have injured. I also beseech Thee to guard, prosper, and extend the Holy Catholic Church; to pour down Thy blessings on our chief pastor, the Pope, upon the clergy and the people; to enlighten and guide them in the way of salvation. Bless and preserve our country. Look on us all with the eye of mercy and compassion; may we know Thee; may we fear, love, and glorify Thee, through the same Jesus Christ, Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Elevation.

Behold your God, your Saviour, and your Judge; remain for a while in silent astonishment at what passes before you; call up all your fervor, and all those sentiments which fear, respect, and confidence can inspire.

Hail, Victim of salvation! Eternal King! Incarnate Word, sacrificed for me and all mankind! Hail, precious body of the Son of God! Hail, sacred flesh, torn with nails, pierced with a lance, and bleeding on a cross, for us poor sinners! O amazing goodness! O infinite love! O, let that tender love plead now in my behalf! let all my iniquities be effaced. I believe. I hope. I love.

The time between the two Elevations is a most precious moment for obtaining particular graces. Ask here what you want.

At the Elevation of the Chalice.

Hail, sacred blood, flowing from the wounds of Jesus Christ, and washing away the sins of the world! O! cleanse, sanctify, and preserve my soul, that nothing may separate me from Thee! Behold, O eternal Father! Thy holy Jesus, and look upon the face of Thy Christ, in Whom Thou art well pleased. Hear the voice of His blood, that cries out to Thee, not for vengeance, but for pardon and mercy. Accept this divine oblation, and through the infinite merits of all that Jesus endured on the cross for our salvation, be pleased to look upon us, and upon all Thy people, with an eye of mercy.

St. Francis Borgia had the custom of addressing himself, after the Elevation, to each of the five wounds, and of asking some grace by the merits of each.

The Pater.

Pater noster, qui es in coelis, sanctificetur nomen tuum ; adveniat regnum tuum ; fiat voluntas tua sicut in cœlo et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie ; et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem, sed libera nos a malo. Amen.

Deliver us, we beseech Thee, O Lord ! from all evils, past, present, and to come ; and by the intercession of the Blessed and ever Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of the holy Apostles Peter, Paul, and Andrew, and of all the Saints, mercifully grant peace in our days, that, through the assistance of Thy mercy, we may be always free from sin, and secure from all disturbance, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

The Agnus Dei.

God, so glorious in heaven, so powerful on earth, so dreadful in hell, is here only a Lamb full of sweetness and bounty. He comes here to take away the sins of the world, and your sins in particular. What a motive for confidence ! What a subject of consolation

O Lamb of God ! sacrificed for my sake, have mercy on me. O adorable Victim of my salvation ! look down on me, and save me. Divine Mediator ! Obtain pardon of Thy Father for me, a sinner, and mercifully grant me the sweets of Thy peace. Amen.

The Communion.

To communicate spiritually, renew by an act of faith your firm belief of Christ's real presence. Make an act of contrition. Desire most earnestly to receive Him with the priest. Beg of Him to accept these desires, and to unite Himself to you in the effusion of His graces.

What a comfort to me, O my God ! were I in the number of those whose sanctity allows them to receive Thee daily ! What an advantage, could I, at this instant, possess Thee in my heart, there pay Thee my homage, lay open to Thee my wants, and share in the favors which Thou grantest to those who receive Thee really ! But since I am unworthy, do Thou, O Lord, supply my want of dispositions ; pardon me my sins ; I detest them from my heart, because they are displeasing to Thee. Accept my ardent wish to be united to Thee ; cast Thine eye upon me, and purify my soul, that I may soon be fit to receive Thee worthily. But until the arrival of this happy day, I earnestly entreat Thee, O dearest Lord, that Thou wouldst make me a sharer in all the advantages which the communion of the priest shall produce in these Thy people. Increase my faith by the virtue of this sacrament, strengthen my hope, fill my heart with love, that it may beat but for Thee, and live for Thee alone. Amen.

Spiritual communions of this sort might be made at any time during the day. This practice cannot be too highly recommended.

The Last Prayers.

Thou hast offered Thyself, O Lord ! for my salvation ; I desire to be sacrificed for Thy glory. I am Thy victim ; do with me as Thou wilt. Whatever I have I consecrate entirely to Thee. The crosses which Thou shalt please to send me I most freely accept. I bless them ; I receive them from Thy hand, and unite them with those Thou hast endured for my sake. I am now about to leave Thy temple, resolved, with Thy help, to serve Thee faithfully. I will struggle against my failings, but chiefly against that to which I am most inclined. Thy law shall henceforth direct me, and I shall forfeit all, and suffer everything, rather than mortally transgress it.

The Blessing

Should be received with the greatest thankfulness. Let your exterior show your respect for it.

During the Last Gospel.

Grant me, O God, that grace of Thy Holy Spirit, which Thou vouchsafedst to Thy holy disciples, in the upper chamber on Mount Sion and on Mount Olivet, and take it not from me, either in this world or the next, for from Thee is every good and perfect gift. O Light of lights, Creator of the world, Thee we adore, Thee we glorify now and forever unto endless ages. Farewell in peace, O altar most holy, may I in peace return to thee again. May the Victim which I have received from thee be to me the forgiveness of my debts and the pardon of my sins, and obtain for me to stand before the judgment-seat of God without debt or shame, for I know not whether I shall ever kneel before thee again.

After Mass.

My God, I thank Thee for the favor Thou hast granted me in permitting me to assist at Mass, preferably to many others, who have not enjoyed this happiness. I humbly ask Thy pardon for all the faults I have committed in Thy presence. May this sacrifice purify me from past sins, and strengthen me against temptations. I go confidently to the occupations to which duty calls me, hoping not to lose sight of the grace Thou hast granted me, and I purpose, with Thy assistance, to use every means of avoiding sin and preserving the fruits of the Mass I have heard. Amen.

MANNER OF SERVING MASS.

The server should kneel at the left of the Priest and answer very distinctly.

Priest. In nómine Patris, et Fílii et Spíritus Sancti. Amen.

INTROIBO ad altáre Dei.

Server. Ad Deum, qui lætíficat juventútem meam.

P. Júdica me, Deus, et discérne causam meam, de gente non sancta : ab hómine iníquo et dolóso érue me.

S. Quia tu es Deus, fortitúdo mea : quare me repulísti, et quare tristis incédo, dum affligit me inimícus?

P. Emítte lucem tuam, et veritátem tuam : ipsa me deduxérunt, et adduxérunt in montem sanctum tuum et in tabernácula tua.

S. Et introíbo ad altáre Dei : ad Deum qui lætíficat juventútem meam.

P. Confitébor tibi in cíthara, Deus, Deus meus. Quare tristis es, anima mea, et quare contúrbas me?

S. Spera in Deo, quóniam adhuc confitébor illi ; salutáre vultus mei, et Deus meus.

P. Glória Patri, et Fílio, et Spíritui Sancto.

S. Sicut erat in princípio, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

P. Introíbo ad altáre Dei.

S. Ad Deum, qui lætíficat juventútem meam.

P. Adjutórium nostrum in nómine Dómini.

S. Qui fecit cœlum et terram.

P. Confíteor Deo, etc.

S. Misereátur tui Omnípotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis tuis, perdúcat te ad vitam ætérnam.

P. Amen.

S. Confíteor Deo omnipoténti, beátæ Maríæ semper vírgini, beáto Michaéli archángelo, beáto Joánni Baptistæ, sanctis apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus sanctis, et tibi, Pater, quia peccávi nimis, cogitatióne, verbo, et ópere. Mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beátam Mariám semper vírginem, beátum Michaélem archángelum, beátum Joánnem Baptístam, sanctos apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes sanctos, et te, Pater oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

P. Misereátur vestri, etc.

S. Amen.

P. Indulgéntiam, absolutiónem, etc.

S. Amen.

P. Deus, tu convérsus vivificábis nos.

S. Et plebs tua lætábitur in te.

P. Osténde nobis, Dómine, misericórdiam tuam.

S. Et salutáre tuúm da nobis.

P. Dómine, exaudi oratióem meam.

S. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.

P. Dóminus vobíscum.

S. Et cum spírítu tuo.

When the Priest goes from the book to the middle of the altar :

P. Kyrie eléison.

S. Kyrie eléison.

P. Kyrie eléison.

S. Christe eléison.

P. Christe eléison.

S. Christe eléison.

P. Kyrie eléison.

S. Kyrie eléison.

P. Kyrie eléison.

P. Dóminus vobíscum.

S. Et cum spírítu tuo.

When the Priest says, Flectamus genua, as is the case a few times in the year, answer, Levate.

At the end of the Epistle say, Deo gratias; then remove the Mass-book to the other end of the altar, and always kneel or stand on the side opposite to that on which the book has been placed.

P. Dóminus vobíscum

S. Et cum spírítu tuo.

P. Sequéntia sancti evangéllii secúndum, etc.

Making the sign of the cross on your forehead, mouth, and breast, say :

S. Glória tibi, Dómine.

At the end, say :

S. Laus tibi Christe.
 P. Dóminus vobíscum.
 S. Et cum spírítu tuo.

Here present the wine and water to the Priest, and then bring the basin, water, and towel. When the Priest has washed his fingers, return to your former place.

P. Oráte, fratres.

S. Suscípiat Dóminus sacrificium de mánibus tuis, ad laudem et glóriam nóminis sui, ad utilitátem quoque nostram, totiúsque ecclésiæ suæ sanctæ.

P. Sursum corda.

S. Habémus ad Dóminum.

P. Grátias agámus Dómino Deo nostro.

S. Dignum et justum est.

At the words Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, ring the bell three times.

When the Priest spreads his hands over the chalice, give warning by the bell of the consecration which is about to be made; then, holding up the vestment with your left hand, ring during the elevation of the host and of the chalice. As often as you pass by the blessed sacrament, make a genuflection.

P. Per ómnia saécula sæculórum.

S. Amen.

P. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatiónem.

S. Sed líbera nos a malo.

P. Per ómnia saécula sæculórum.

S. Amen.

P. Pax Dómini sit semper vobíscum.

S. Et cum spírítu tuo.

At the Domine non sum dignus, ring the bell three times.

After the Priest's communion, if there are no communicants, bring the wine and water. If there are communicants, say the Confiteor, when the Priest is receiving the precious blood. When he returns to the altar bring the wine and water, remove the book, and kneel at the Gospel side.

P. Dóminus vobíscum.

- S. Et cum spírítu tuo.
 P. Per ómnia saécula sæculórum.
 S. Amen.
 P. Ite, missa est; or, Benedicámus Dómino.
 S. Deo grátias.

In Masses for the dead.

- P. Requiéscant in pace.

 S. Amen.
 P. Dóminus vobiscum.
 S. Et cum spírítu tuo.
 P. Inítium (or, sequéntia) sancti evangéllii, etc.
 S. Glória tibi, Dómine.

At the end say,

Deo grátias.

DEVOTIONS FOR CON- FESSION.

In order to prepare well for Confession, we must strictly fulfil the five following conditions :—

- I. An examination of conscience, that we may know all our sins.
- II. A heartfelt sorrow for having committed them.
- III. A firm resolution never to commit them again.
- IV. A candid and humble confession of them to a Priest empowered to absolve us.
- V. A desire or intention of satisfying God, and our neighbor also, if injured.

Prayer before the Examination of Conscience.

Beg of God to make your sins known to you, and to give you a true sense of their malice. Prostrate yourself in spirit at the feet of your Redeemer, as Magdalen did when she washed them with her tears; or imagine yourself on Mount Calvary, and there, beneath His Cross, pour forth your prayers to Him, resolving to acquit yourself of this confession as if it were to be your last.

O Holy Spirit, Eternal Source of Light, mercifully vouchsafe to enlighten the darkness of my understanding, that I may clearly perceive the true state of my conscience. Thou Who hast created me, and art to be my Judge, dost fully behold the most secret recesses of my heart; show me now, therefore, my sins in as conspicuous a manner as I shall behold them when on the point of appearing at Thy tremendous tribunal. My object at present is to prevent the rigorous account I must there give of all my thoughts, words, and actions; for, were I now deficient in that sincere exactness which is necessary in the examination and confession of my sins, Thou wouldst infallibly correct, at Thy unerring tribunal, the injustice and iniquity of such a proceeding. Discover, then, to me, O God, all those secret thoughts, irregular desires, criminal words and actions, or omissions of my duty, by which I may have violated Thy sacred law or scandalized my neighbor. Oh! do not permit self-love to seduce and blind me; but rather remove the veil it places before my eyes, that, beholding the true state of my interior, I may make a humble and sincere confession of my sins to Thy minister.

Examine yourself attentively, not only on the sins you have committed since your last confession, but also on the faults you may have committed in making it; beware of scrupulosity or anxiety, for in this examination it is only necessary that you shall use such a diligence as any serious temporal concern might require, when it is neither your intention nor your interest to be deceived. For this purpose calmly recall to mind the different occasions of sin which have since fallen in your way, or to which your state or condition of life exposes you, the places you have frequented, the persons you have conversed with, etc. It may also help, to read carefully the Commandments of God and the Commandments of the Church.

The Commandments of God.

1. I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt not have strange gods before Me.
2. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
3. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day.
4. Honor thy father and thy mother.
5. Thou shalt not kill.
6. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
7. Thou shalt not steal.
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods.

The Commandments of the Church.

1. To hear Mass on Sundays, and all holydays of obligation.
2. To fast and abstain on the days commanded.
3. To confess our sins at least once a year.
4. To receive worthily the blessed Eucharist at Easter or within the time appointed.
5. To contribute to the support of our pastors.

6. Not to solemnize marriage at the forbidden times, nor to marry persons within the forbidden degrees of kindred, or otherwise prohibited by the church, nor clandestinely.

After the Examination.

Having discovered the different sorts of sins of which you have been guilty, together with their number, enormity, or such aggravating circumstances as may considerably increase their malice or change their nature, your next endeavor should be to excite in your breast a heartfelt sorrow for having committed them, and a sincere detestation of them, by repeating several times the Act of Contrition over them; or you might also say :

Though I have sinned, O Lord, and have done evil in Thy sight, yet shall I never say, as Cain did, "My crimes are too great to be forgiven." Thou didst pardon David, though his sin was most grievous; Magdalen, a sinner by profession; Peter, who denied Thee with oaths; the adulteress convicted in Thy presence; the penitent thief on the cross. All these obtained forgiveness, because they sought it sincerely: nay, more, Thy tenderness was shown even to the traitor Judas, nor were even the cruel Jews excluded from Thy prayers; and shall not I also, O my God, cry out to Thee for mercy? Yes, for, relying on Thy wonted goodness, I shall never be confounded. My sins are enormous, it is true, and stand always against me: but the more hideous they are, the more I detest them. Against Thee, O God, have I sinned, and to Thee I cry out for pardon. Oh, that I had never offended Thee, for Thou art infinitely good. Oh, that my sorrow for having offended Thee were great as my offences. Oh, that I might grieve for them even unto death, and feel those bitter pangs with which Thy soul was overwhelmed in the Garden of Olives. Let the inexpressible anguish of mind Thou didst there feel, Thy sighs, Thy tears, Thy fainting, and Thy bloody sweat, O Lord, plead now in my behalf, and supply the defects of my imperfect sorrow. Let them draw down Thy mercies, O heavenly Father, and restore me again to Thy favor.

Alas, I have offended Him by Whose blood I was redeemed. I have been the cause of His sufferings. I have renewed His death, and crucified Him again by my sins. Oh, who will give sorrow to my heart and a fountain of tears to my eyes, that I may bewail my iniquities in the bitterness of my soul? Have compassion on me, O most loving Father! I throw myself into the arms of Thy infinite mercy. Clothe me with Thy grace, and admit me to Thy sacrament of reconciliation. Cast out of my heart whatever Thou knowest profanes or defiles Thy temple. Root out of my soul whatever is displeasing unto Thee, and lay in me the foundation of a new life. I renounce and utterly detest all sins for the love of Thee. O God of infinite bounty and goodness, I am heartily sorry for having offended Thee. I beg and hope for pardon through the merits of Thine only Son, my Saviour Jesus Christ. Accept His Passion and death in satisfaction for my offences, and for His sake have mercy on me, whose only hope is in Thy mercy. Amen.

If, with these sentiments glowing in your breast, you cast yourself at the feet of your Confessor, and reveal to him all the sins you recollect, in a truly penitential spirit, be assured you shall return with joy from the tribunal of confession, and feel realized in yourself the consoling promise of the Holy Spirit, that "They who sow in tears shall reap in joy."

Prayers after Confession.

Perform immediately, if possible, the penance enjoined.

Accustom yourself to direct your intention, before you recite your sacramental penance, fervently uniting it to the sufferings and merits of Christ. This may be done by the following, or any similar short prayer.

O my God and my Creator! I offer Thee the penance I am about to perform; Thou didst impose it on me by the ministry of my confessor, and I desire to perform it with the utmost contrition, devotion, and humility. But, Lord! since Thou well knowest that it is inadequate to my sins, and that anything I could do would be incapable of blotting out the least of my offences, permit me to unite this penance, as well as all the actions, pains, and sufferings of my life, to the bitter sufferings of my Redeemer, to the great sacrifice of expiation which Jesus offered on Mount Calvary for my sins; also to the merits of the Blessed Virgin, to the penance and sufferings of all the Saints and all the just, that thereby the deficiencies of my imperfect satisfaction may be abundantly supplied.

Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more. St. John v. 14.

O Almighty and merciful God! Who according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies hast vouchsafed, once more, to receive this prodigal child, nay, worse than the prodigal, and to admit him to the sacrament of reconciliation, I give Thee thanks with all the powers of my soul, for this and all Thy other mercies, graces and blessings bestowed on me, the most unworthy of all sinners; and prostrating myself now at Thy sacred feet, I offer myself, to be, henceforward and for ever, Thine. Oh, let nothing in life or death ever separate me from Thee! I once more renounce, with my whole soul, all my treasons against Thee, and all the abominations and sins of my past life, and from this moment I dedicate myself eternally to Thy love and service. Oh, grant that, for the time to come, I may keep my heart with all watchfulness, abhor sin, and fear even the shadow of it more than any thing whatsoever! I resolve henceforward to suffer any thing rather than offend Thee, and to avoid most carefully every occasion of even the least infidelity to Thee. I beg Thy blessing upon these my resolutions, that they may not be ineffectual, like so many others I have formerly made. For, O Lord! without Thee I am nothing but misery and sin. Supply also, by Thy mercy, whatever defects have been in this my confession. I am sensible it has been very imperfect, and that I was far from having that true sorrow which the heinousness of my sins required: but let the precious blood of Thy well-beloved Son supply the deficiency. Accept my poor performance, such as it is, and give me grace to be now and always a true penitent, through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son. Amen.

Mother of my Jesus, remember that thou art also my Mother; my soul was committed to thy care by our Jesus, and He Himself has given thee to me for my Mother: do then, I beseech thee, my sweet Mother, obtain that I may receive from this holy sacrament all the fruits which it is His will it should produce in my soul. And, O my blessed Mother! by all the anguish thou didst feel in being separated from thy divine Son, obtain for me that perfect love which will keep me united to Him in time and in eternity. Show thyself my Mother.

O my good angel, my guide and guardian, my holy patrons, and all ye angels and saints, intercede for me; obtain that I may keep all my good resolutions.

PRAYERS BEFORE COM- MUNION.

Prayer of St. Ambrose.

O dear Lord Jesus! I come to Thy banquet. I am a sinner, with no merits of my own, but I trust in Thy mercy and goodness, and yet I tremble with fear, as I come near Thee; for my body and heart have been sullied with sin, and my tongue and my mind have been left unguarded. To Thee O God, Who lovest me! To Thee, O dread majesty! I come, as to a fountain to wash myself in. To Thee I come to be cured. I fly to Thee for protection, and Thou Whom I could not stand before, when Thou art Judge, be, I beg Thee, my Saviour. Look at my wounds, O Lord! Look at my shame! I know my sins are many and great, and I fear. But I hope in Thy mercies, of which there is no number. Look on me, with eyes of mercy. O Jesus Christ, my Lord, Eternal King, God and Man! O crucified Saviour! Hear me, who hope in Thee. Pity me, full of sin and misery; for the fount of Thy mercy is always flowing. Hail, saving Victim! offered on the cross for me and all men! Hail precious blood of my Lord Jesus Christ, which flows from His wounds and effaces the sins of all the world! Remember, Lord, Thy creature, redeemed by Thy blood. I am sorry for having sinned; I want to repair what I have done; take from me, O forgiving Father, my sins and iniquities. Purify my mind and body; let me taste, in the manner I ought, of the Holy of Holies; let this communion, which I now desire to receive, wash away all my sins, put to flight bad thoughts, make good ones arise in me, and guard my soul and body against my enemies.

An Act of Faith.

O my Jesus, true God and true Man, of the same substance, power, and majesty with Thy eternal Father, I believe, with a firm faith, that Thou art truly and really present in this adorable sacrament. I believe it firmly, because, to believe it, I desire no more than Thy own words, "This is My body." I believe; O Lord, do Thou increase my faith.

An Act of Hope.

O Sovereign Lord of heaven and earth, shall Thy exalted grandeur discourage and confound Thy unworthy creature? Shall I flee from the face of Him, in Whose presence the pillars of heaven tremble, and before Whom the angelic choirs are not found spotless? No, omnipotent goodness, Thou hast created my soul for Thyself; and it can never be satisfied without Thee; and, though I tremble at the sight of my unworthiness, yet the remembrance of Thy infinite goodness fills my soul with consolation and hope. I will, then, unite myself to Thee, Who art my Lord and my God, the Friend and Saviour of my soul. O! send forth Thy Spirit; prepare Thyself the heart Thou hast chosen for Thy tabernacle, and for the repository of Thy sacred, adorable body. Like the idols of Egypt, let my passions fall prostrate and be annihilated at Thy approach; let the mountains of my pride crumble at the view of Thy profound humiliation; and let Thy divine example teach me to be meek and humble of heart, that in Thee, and by Thee, I may find rest to my soul.

An Act of Love.

O holy Bread, which strengthenest the heart of man: whoever eateth Thee, shall live for ever; he who doth not eat Thee, shall not have that life. How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth for Thee, O Sion, City of our God! My soul thirsts for Thee, my God, Thou Fountain of life eternal! I am, I know, sinful, poor and wretched; but I call on Thee, my Almighty Redeemer. O take me up, and cast me into the sea! into the sea of that blood, which was shed for me; cover me with Thy merits; support my weakness until my soul, having in the strength of this divine food, travelled unsullied through the desert of this dangerous world, is, in Thy Father's house, for ever united to Thee, its God and Saviour.

PRAYERS AFTER COM- MUNION.

Return from the altar as recollectedly as possible ; remain for a few minutes in adoration while Jesus is yet with you. Ask for the graces you want.

O my most gracious Saviour ! what greater happiness or comfort could I expect ! O, wonderful condescension of my God ! O, what return shall I make Him for His ineffable love ! He, Whom the saints, the angels, and the whole heavenly host adore, hath given Himself entirely to me, and now really and substantially dwelleth within me ! Without any other inducement but His pure mercy, He hath vouchsafed to visit, comfort, and nourish my poor soul with the divine and heavenly banquet of His precious Body and Blood, with which He redeemed me on the Cross. May honor, praise, and glory be for ever paid Thee, O my sweet Redeemer, Jesus Christ ! O that I could now give Thee as much honor and glory as is incessantly given Thee by the whole choir of heaven ! Accept, O Lord, my heart as a thanksgiving offering for all Thy favors and blessings. Accept my whole being, because by every claim of right and justice it belongeth entirely to Thee.

And thou, O my soul, bless the Lord, and let all that is within thee praise His holy name. O all ye works of the Lord, bless the Lord, praise and glorify Him for ever. O all ye angels of the Lord, bless the Lord ; magnify, praise, and glorify His holy name ; because I have found the beloved of my soul.

I can now fear no evil, because Thou, O Lord, art with me as my powerful Guardian and Protector. Give me, therefore, Thy blessing, O beloved Jesus ! and establish an everlasting peace in my soul.

Prayer of St. Bonaventure.

O sweetest Lord Jesus Christ, pierce, I beseech Thee, the inmost marrow of my soul with the tender and life-giving wound of Thy love; with true, and calm, and holy apostolical charity, so that my whole soul may ever languish and faint for love of Thee, and for desire of Thee alone. May it long for Thee and pine for Thee in the courts of Thy house; may it desire to be dissolved and to be with Thee. Grant that my soul may hunger for Thee, Thou bread of angels, Thou refreshment of holy souls, our daily supersubstantial bread, having all manner of sweetness and savor, and all most thrilling delights. May my heart ever hunger for Thee and feed on Thee, on Whom angels long to look; and may my inmost soul be filled with the sweetness of the taste of Thee. May it ever thirst for Thee, Thou well of life, Thou fountain of wisdom and knowledge, Thou source of everlasting light, Thou torrent of pleasures, Thou fatness and abundance of the house of God; may it ever yearn towards Thee, seek Thee, find Thee, tend towards Thee, attain to Thee, meditate ever on Thee, speak of Thee, and work all things to the praise and glory of Thy name, with humility and discretion, with love and delight, with ready care and glad affection, with perseverance even unto the end; and do Thou be alone and evermore my hope, my whole trust, my riches, my delight, my gladness and my joy, my rest and my calm repose, my peace and my sweet content, my fragrance and my sweetness, my food and my refreshment, my refuge and my help, my wisdom, my portion, my own possession and my treasure, in Whom my mind and my heart are fixed and rooted firmly and immovably for evermore. Amen.

Pious Aspirations to Jesus.

I have found Him Whom my soul loveth; I hold Him and will not let Him go. I embrace Thee, O my Jesus, and receive the full joy of my love. I possess Thee in Whom I possess all things. I implore Thee, let my soul feel the power of Thy presence; let it taste how sweet Thou art, O my Lord, that led captive by Thy love, it may seek none else besides Thee, nor love aught else but for Thy sake. Thou art my King; forget not my tribulation and my need. Thou art my Judge; spare me and be merciful to my sins. Thou art my Physician; heal all my infirmities. Thou art the Spouse of my soul; betroth me to Thyself for evermore. Thou art my Leader and my Defender; place me by Thy side, and then I care not who lifteth his hand against me. Thou hast offered Thyself a Victim for me, and I will sacrifice to Thee a sacrifice of praise. Thou art my Redeemer; redeem my soul from the power of hell, and preserve me. Thou art my God and my All; for what have I in heaven but Thee, and besides Thee what do I desire upon earth? Thou, O my God, art the God of my heart, and my portion forever. Amen.

The Crucifix Prayer.

POPE PIUS VII. granted a Plenary Indulgence, applicable to the Souls in Purgatory, to all the faithful who, after having confessed their sins with contrition, and received the Holy Communion, shall devoutly recite this prayer before an image or representation of Christ crucified, together with some other prayer for the wants of the Church.

Behold, O kind and most sweet Jesus, I cast myself upon my knees in Thy sight, and with the most fervent desire of my soul I pray and beseech Thee that Thou wouldst impress upon my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm desire of amendment, whilst with deep affection and grief of soul I ponder within myself, and mentally contemplate Thy five most precious wounds; having before my eyes that which David spake in prophecy: "They pierced My hands and My feet; they have numbered all My bones."

VARIOUS PRAYERS.

The "Suscipe."

Suscipe, Domine, universam meam libertatem. Accipe memoriam, intellectum, atque voluntatem omnem. Quidquid habeo vel possideo mihi largitus es ; id tibi totum restituo ac tuæ prorsus voluntati trado gubernandum. Amorem tui solum cum gratia tua mihi dones, et dives sum satis, nec aliud quidquam ultra posco.

O Lord, take all my liberty, my memory, my intellect, and all my will ; receive them all from me. Whatever I have or call my own comes unmerited from Thee ; to Thee, then, I hand it over, that Thy will alone may rule it ; give me Thy love, while giving Thy grace ; then I am rich indeed, and need no more.

The "Anima Christi."

Anima Christi, sanctifica me.
Corpus Christi, salva me.
Sanguis Christi, inebria me.

Aqua lateris Christi, lava me.
Passio Christi, conforta me.

O bone Jesu ! exaudi me :
Intra tua vulnera absconde me :

Ne permittas me separari a te ;

Ab hoste maligno defende me ;

In hora mortis meæ voca me,

Et jube me venire ad te ;
Ut cum sanctis tuis laudem te

In sæcula sæculorum. Amen.

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water of the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me :
Within Thy wounds hide me :

Permit me not to be separated from Thee :

From the malignant enemy defend me :

In the hour of my death call me,

And bid me come to Thee,
That with Thy Saints I may praise Thee

For ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

O adorable Heart of my Saviour and my God, penetrated with a lively sorrow at the sight of the outrages, which Thou hast received, and which Thou dost daily receive in the Sacrament of Thy love, behold me prostrate, at the foot of Thy altar, to make an acceptable atonement. Oh! that I were able, by my homage and veneration, to make satisfaction to Thine injured honor, and to efface, with my tears and with my blood, so many irreverences, profanations, and sacrileges, which outrage Thine infinite goodness. How well should my life be disposed of, could it be sacrificed for so worthy an object!

An Offering to the Blessed Virgin.

My Queen, my Mother! I give myself entirely to thee; and to show my devotion to thee, I consecrate to thee this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my whole being, without reserve. Wherefore, good Mother, as I am thine, keep me, guard me, as thy property and possession.

Prayer of St. Aloysius to Our Blessed Lady.

Holy Mary, my sovereign Lady, Mother of God and my dear Mother, I commend myself to thy blessed keeping and powerful protection, and reclining on the bosom of thy mercy, I entrust to thee to-day and every day and at the hour of my death, my body and my soul. To thee I commit every hope of mine and every consolation, to thee, all my trials and difficulties, to thee, my life and the close of my life, that, through thy holy intercession and through thy merits, all my actions may be guided and disposed according to thy will, and that of thy divine Son. Amen.

The Memorare.

Remember, O most loving Virgin Mary! how from of old it has never been heard that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother! to thee I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word incarnate! despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

Hail! Holy Queen.

Hail! holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our Life, our Sweetness, and our Hope; to thee we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Prayer to St. Joseph.

Hail! through the most Sacred Heart of Jesus, O blessed Joseph, foster-father of our Lord Jesus Christ, dearly loved spouse of the most holy Mother of God, happy completion of the patriarchal line, most deeply rooted in humility, most ardent in love, most earnest in faith and hope, most strenuous in every good work, most anxious for the salvation of all, most highly raised in contemplation, most pure in virginity, and in the practice of all virtues most like unto thy spouse, the Mother of God—Deign, then, to pray for me and for us all, that those who serve God faithfully, may be increased both in number and in merit: to the greater glory of God, Who liveth and reigneth for ages and ages. Amen.

To St. Aloysius.

O blessed Aloysius adorned with angelic graces, I, thy most unworthy suppliant, recommend to thee especially the chastity of my soul and body, praying thee, by thy angelic purity, to plead for me with Jesus Christ and His most holy Mother, Virgin of virgins, that they may vouchsafe to keep me from all grievous sin. O never let me be defiled with any stain of carnal sin; but when thou dost see me in temptation or in danger of falling, remove far from my heart all bad thoughts and unclean desires, and awaken in me the memory of eternity to come and Jesus crucified; impress deeply on my heart a sense of the holy fear of God, and thus kindling in me the fire of divine love, enable me so to follow thy footsteps here on earth, that in heaven with thee, I may be made worthy to enjoy the vision of our God forever. Amen.

To St. Stanislaus.

Hail, Benjamin of Holy Confessors, Angel in purity of soul and body, and Seraph burning with divine love! As the Benjamin of the Church of Jesus Christ, change the earthly affections of our hearts to heavenly ones; as an Angel, keep us from temptations against the angelic virtue, and as a Seraph, cleanse our lips with a burning coal, that we may sing the divine praises worthily in time and for eternity. Amen.

To Know our Vocation.

“Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?”

O eternal God, Who art the Light of the world, and for Whose glory the whole creation is ordained, to Thee I submit myself, and my whole life; and that I may live to Thy glory, I beseech Thee in Thy mercy to direct me in the choice of a state of life, that, having Thee for my Guide, I may embrace that course which may be most pleasing to Thee, and most proper for me to work out my salvation.

O Queen of Heaven and Mother of Jesus, be a mother to me, and obtain for me of thy divine Son that I may hear His call, know His will, and have grace readily to put it in execution. Amen.

Prayer before Study.

O bone Jesu! qui verus fons luminis et sapientiæ diceris, et linguas infantium facis esse disertas, linguam meam erudias, atque in labiis meis gratiam tuæ bene-lips the grace of Thy blessing. Give me a diligent and obedient spirit, quickness of apprehending, capacity of retaining, and the continual assistance of Thy holy grace, that I may apply all my studies to Thy honor, and the everlasting salvation of my own soul, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Before Class.

V. Veni, Sancte Spiritus, reple tuorum corda fidelium, et tui amoris in eis ignem accende.

Emitte Spiritum tuum et creabuntur.

R. Et renovabis faciem terræ.

Oremus.

Deus qui corda fidelium, Sancti Spiritus illustratione docuisti, da nobis in eodem Spiritu recta sapere, et de ejus semper consolatione gaudere, per Christum Dominum Nostrum. Amen.

Ave Maria, gratia plena, Dominus tecum, benedicta tu in mulieribus, et benedictus fructus ventris tui, Jesus.

Sancta Maria, Mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatoribus, nunc et in hora mortis nostræ. Amen.

V. Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love.

Send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created;

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

O God, Who, by the light of Thy holy Spirit, didst teach the hearts of the faithful, grant us always to know through that same Spirit what is right, and evermore to rejoice in His holy comfort, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death. Amen.

After Class.

Sub tuum præsidium con- tuginus, sancta Dei Gene- trix, nostras deprecationes ne despicias in necessitati- bus, sed a periculis cunctis libera nos, semper Virgo gloriosa et benedicta.	We fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God! despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us from all dangers, O ever glorious and blessed Virgin.

Grace before Meals.

Bless us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts, which of Thy bounty we are about to receive, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Grace after Meals.

We give Thee thanks, Almighty God, for all Thy benefits, Who livest and reignest, world without end.
 Amen.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the Mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

For the Souls in Purgatory.

PSALM CXXIX.

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Let Thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities; Lord, who shall stand it?

For with Thee, there is merciful forgiveness; and by reason of Thy law, I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath relied on His word; my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord.

Because with the Lord, there is mercy; and with Him plentiful redemption.

And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities

PIOUS REFLECTIONS FOR EVERY DAY IN THE MONTH.

by Father de Boylesve, S. J.

FIRST DAY.

Faith.

1. All that Faith teaches, is founded on the authority of God's word. It is from Christ Himself that the Church has learned whatever she proposes to the faithful, as the object of their belief. One cannot go astray when truth itself is the guide; and there is nothing more reasonable, than to submit reason to Faith.

2. Of what use is faith to a Christian, if it be not the rule of his conduct? It is the most consummate folly to doubt of a doctrine, which God has revealed, which so many martyrs have sealed with their blood, which has been confirmed by so many miracles, which the devils themselves have so often confessed; but, it is a much greater folly to believe this doctrine to be true, and to live, as if it were supposed to be false. Not to live conformably to our belief, is to believe just as the damned do.

3. Faith, then, shall be henceforth the principle of my actions, and the rule of my life. Whatever it condemns, I also absolutely condemn, in spite of my natural repugnance. I will oppose the maxims of the gospel, to those of the world, whenever the occasion offers. What does the world say?—That we must follow our inclinations, that we must suffer nothing, &c. What does Jesus Christ say?—He says the very contrary; but who is right, Jesus Christ, or the world?

[Thank God for your being in the Church, and say the Creed slowly, as a solemn profession of your Faith.]

O Lord! increase our Faith. Luke XVII. 5.

What doth it avail to believe like a Catholic, and to live like a heathen? St. Peter Damian.

SECOND DAY.

The End of Man.

1. God alone is our last end. He could not create us except for Himself. Our hearts tell us that we are made for Him ; we cannot disown this truth, without belying ourselves.

2. Every one should have what belongs to him ; let us, then, give ourselves to God, since it is He that has a right over us. If we be not His of our own accord, as His children, we must be His, in spite of ourselves, as His slaves. We must, of necessity, live under the dominion of either His justice or His bounty. Which side shall we take?

3. Every thing should tend to its proper object, and act according to its nature. If the sun, which is made to shine, refused its light to the world, it would be a monster in the universe. That heart is not less monstrous, which being made for God, doth still refuse to belong to Him. Do I behave myself as a creature, which belongs only to God? Are all my thoughts—are all my actions directed to Him? Ah! how little do I do, that may be said to be truly done for God! What am I doing in this world, if I forget that only affair for which I came into it?

[Make here a resolution of seeking God alone, and of depriving Him of nothing which he has a right to.]

Thou art my Lord and my God. John XX. 28.

He requires you entirely, Who hath made you entirely.
St. Austin.

THIRD DAY.

Contempt for the World.

1. From the moment we are attached to the world, we cease, in some measure, to be Christians. This profane world, so passionately fond of grandeur, of pleasure, of every thing that can flatter self-love, is the capital enemy of Jesus Christ. In maxims, commandments, and interests, Jesus is opposed to the world. They cannot both be obeyed, we must break off with one or with the other.

2. We cannot take part with the world, without a breach of the promises we made at our baptism ; when we renounced Satan and his pomps, we solemnly bound ourselves to trample under foot whatever is greatest in the esteem of worldlings. What perfidy ! what a sacrilege ! to prefer the goods of the earth to those of heaven, and to become idolaters of vanity.

3. The world has nothing worthy of an immortal soul, it has not even wherewith to requite its most devoted servants. Its treasures, its amusements, its honors, may occupy and disturb the heart of man, but they cannot satisfy it. They are, in reality, but false goods, vain shades and illusions ; or, to speak more properly, they are real evils—they make a man wicked, they cannot make him happy. The most brilliant fortune is not only frail and dangerous, but it is often a source of the most painful uneasiness. There are sighs and sufferings upon the throne, as well as in chains and dungeons.

[Beg of God to destroy in you the spirit of the world, and to give you strength to despise its allurements.]

The fashion of this world passeth away. 1 Cor. VII. 31.
“Woe to those, who adhere to what is transitory, because, with those things, they themselves must pass away.”

FOURTH DAY.

Death.

1. A Christian has great reason to be afraid of death, when he does not live as a Christian. What a dreadful account must he give, after a worldly and sensual life ! What bitter regret, to have lost the opportunities of saving himself ! To die an enemy of God ! O dismal death ! O dreadful moment ! which concludes the pleasures of time, and begins the pains of eternity.

2. What would we wish to have done, at the hour of death ? Let us do at present, what, then, we would be glad to have done. There is no time to lose : every moment may be the last of our life. The longer we have lived, the nearer we approach to the grave. Our death is not the less certain, because it has been put off.

3. What will our opinion of this earth be, when we are forced to quit it ? Let us now take advice from death ; it is a faithful counsellor—it will not deceive us. What will become of this beauty, this money, this pleasure, this honor? What are they thought of, at the hour of death? In our life-time, appearances deceive us; at our death, we shall see all things as they are. Man, while alive, esteems the world; man, dying, despises it. But which should we reasonably believe—man living, or man at the point of death? Ah, how trifling will the world appear by the light of that torch, which faintly glimmers near the bed of death! but, alas! it will then be no longer time to undeceive ourselves.

[Think seriously on what you chiefly apprehend, were you to die this moment, and regulate it immediately. Accustom yourself to perform every action, as if you were to die instantly after it. Above all things, observe this practice in the use of the Sacraments.]

There is but one step between me and death. 1 Kings XX. 3.

There is no to-morrow for a Christian. Tertullian.

FIFTH DAY.

The Last Judgment.

1. I must one day appear before the tribunal of Jesus Christ, to be there judged upon the good or the evil I shall have done. There is nothing more formal, or more express, in the gospel, than this truth. I believe it, as firmly as if the last trumpet had already sounded to call up the dead.

2. What shall we say at the sight of so many bad thoughts, of so many criminal actions, of so many graces despised? O what a terrible day is the day of God's wrath! Where the inmost recesses of the heart shall be openly exposed—where every fault shall be strictly examined! The just themselves shall be hardly found just. What then must become of unhappy sinners?

3. What sentence must an impenitent sinner expect from an offended and inexorable God? O tremendous condemnation! Go, ye cursed, &c. Alas! whither shall these miserable wretches go, to whom Thou thus givest Thy malediction? to what part of the world shall they retire, when they withdraw from Thee? where can there be so miserable a dwelling? To be banished from the presence of God! to be accursed of God! what a destiny!

[Imagine yourself, now, before the tribunal of Christ. What are you ashamed of, at this very moment? Reflect seriously on it, and remember that all your secret sins shall, at the day of judgment, be exposed, if you do not here efface them by a sincere repentance.]

*Who can stand before the face of His indignation?
Woe even to the praiseworthy life, if, without mercy, O God! Thou shalt examine it. St. Augustine.*

SIXTH DAY.

Hell.

1. How great would be our horror, if the shrieks of the damned, if their groans and blasphemies, could reach us! They roar like wild beasts; they accuse themselves of their sins; they bewail, they detest them. It is too late; their tears but add new strength to the fire that torments them. Repentance of the damned! how rigorous art thou, but, ah, how fruitless!

2. Never to see God! to be burning in flames forever; the blood boiling in our veins, the marrow in our bones! to be trampled on by devils! to have all that is hideous forever before our eyes! to have rage, anguish, and despair eternally rooted in our hearts, without comfort or mitigation! O what a life!

3. These wretches are outrageous at having had so many opportunities of saving themselves, and having neglected them. The recollection of their past pleasure is one of their most sensible torments; but nothing more keenly gnaws them, than the impossibility of forgetting God Whom, by their own fault they have miserably forfeited.

[Go down, in spirit, into hell. Inquire of the damned what it is that has made them fall into it. Question them upon their present state, and learn of them to fear God, and dread your danger.]

Which of you can dwell with devouring fire? Isaias XXXIII. 14.

*The impious pass from one punishment to another—from the burnings of concupiscence to the flames of hell.
St. Augustine.*

SEVENTH DAY.

Eternity of the Pains of Hell.

1. Can the wrath of God go farther than punishing the pleasures which are so soon over, by tortures which will never have an end? To be miserable while ever God is God? Can any misery be like it? Is it not enough that the evils of the damned should be extreme? Must they still, besides this, be eternal? To be hurt, by the point of a pin, is trifling in itself; yet, were this pain to last always, it would become insupportable. What shall it be, then?

2. O Eternity! When a lost soul shall have shed tears enough to make up all the rivers and seas in the world, did he shed but one tear in every hundred years, he shall not be more advanced, after so many millions of ages, than if he had only begun to suffer; he must begin again, as if he had yet suffered nothing; and when he shall have begun as often as there are grains of sand on the sea-shore, or atoms in the air, or leaves on the trees, he shall still be as far off as ever.

3. The damned must not only suffer, during eternity, but suffer, every moment, an eternity entire. Eternity is always present to them; it enters into their punishment; their mind is incessantly struck with the endless duration of their torments. O cruel thought! O deplorable condition! to rage for an eternity! to burn for an eternity! Ah, that we could conceive this, as those lost souls conceive it!

[Make an act of faith upon the duration of the punishments which the justice of God inflicts for mortal sin. We must at least believe what we are not able to conceive. It is a great misfortune for a Christian not to be persuaded of this eternity but by his own sad experience.]

Those who do not obey the gospel shall suffer eternal punishments. 2 Thess. I. 8, 9.

Momentary is that which delights, eternal is that which tortures. St. Chrysostom.

EIGHTH DAY.

Heaven.

1. Heaven! thou glorious state, no heart can conceive, no tongue can describe, what thou art! Exemption from all that is evil; assemblage of all that is good; masterpiece of God's omnipotence; the price of the blood of Jesus; and more than man can desire!

2. To see God clearly, and as He is in His glory; to love God without measure; to possess God without ever fearing to lose Him; to be happy in the felicity of God Himself; such is the object of my hopes. But a day or two of pilgrimage and exile, and then I shall be with Him, forever.

3. What matters it how we are here below, provided we be with Jesus for all eternity? Can I justly complain, when a never-ending happiness costs me so little? The martyrs purchased heaven, at the price of their blood, and thought it was given them for nothing. Shall I not sacrifice my corrupt will for it? O happy eternity! if men only knew what thou art worth!

[Excite within yourself a great desire of heaven; and behold the earth, with a proportionate contempt. Were you filled with a proper sense of it, nothing here below could allure or disturb you.]

I shall be satisfied when Thy glory shall appear.
Psalm XVI. 15.

If the labor terrifies, the reward invites. St. Bernard.

NINTH DAY.

The Presence of God.

1. God at this moment beholds me as if I were alone in the world; or rather, He is within me as an eye infinitely enlightened, which observes me attentively, and which nothing can escape. He sees me as clearly as He comprehends Himself, and with as intense an application as if He ceased to contemplate Himself, in order to study me.

2. It is much more shameful for me, that my sins should appear in His sight, than that they should be exposed to the eyes of the whole world. Would I commit in the presence of a servant, what I dare commit before the King of kings? What blindness, to fear so much the eyes of men, and so little the eyes of God!

3. The blackest darkness can never conceal me from light itself. The most distant and solitary retreats are always filled with the Divine Majesty. I may shun as much as I please the sight and the company of men—I will find God everywhere.

[Put yourself in the presence of God, and see whether there is anything in you that may offend His eyes. Accustom yourself to practice this; it is a most powerful remedy against sin. God is looking at me. This thought will overcome the strongest temptation.]

All things are naked and open to His eyes. Heb. IV.

13.

If you are determined to commit sin, seek first a place where God will not see you, and then do what you please. St. Augustine.

TENTH DAY.

The Care of our Salvation.

1. The business of Salvation is, properly speaking, the business of men: everything else should be counted as nothing. The enterprises of kings, their negotiations, &c., are as the amusements and the triflings of children. The important, and the only affair is to serve God, and thereby save ourselves; the whole good, the whole perfection of man consists in this. It is not to be reasonable, it is not to be man, to neglect an affair, the consequences of which are so great, the success of which is so uncertain, and the loss of which is so irreparable. What blindness! What folly to think only of living, and not to think of living well; to apply so much to our fortune, and so little to the saving of our soul. What doth it avail a man to gain the whole world, and to lose himself!

2. All creatures are made only for our salvation; they become useless when not employed for that great end. So that the moment a man ceases to labor for his salvation, the sun should cease to shine, the planets should stop in their course, the earth should no longer support him, the angels should abandon him, he should fall back into his original nothingness. He is unworthy of life when he liveth not for God.

3. However, the greater part of mankind think less of saving themselves, than of anything else. Everything is attended to, except the affair of salvation. All but that is turned to account:—this money must be put out to interest;—this field must be tilled;—these lands must be let out at more considerable rent. All losses are bewailed except the one which is beyond recovery. Great expenses are incurred for the body, and nothing at all is done for the soul. From the manner in which we live, it would seem that our soul is not really ours, that it is the soul of our most mortal enemy, or the soul of some brute: or rather that we have a soul just merely to destroy it.

[Make now a resolution to save yourself, cost what it will; be of the same sentiment with a certain pontiff, who, when a king asked something of him, which could not be granted without sin, replied, "If I had two souls, I would give one of them to you, prince; but as I have only one, I do not choose to forfeit it."]

One thing is necessary. St. Luke X. 42.

Where there is the loss of salvation, there, surely, there can be no gain. St. Eucherius.

ELEVENTH DAY.

Horror of Sin.

1. How great a loss is the loss of God! Men think themselves unfortunate, when they lose all their possessions at law, or by bankruptcy, or by some other accident. What is it, then, to lose an infinite good! Unhappy is the soul which loses its God by sin! but far more unhappy the soul, who considers this loss as nothing.

2. O sin! how common art thou among men! but how little, at the same time, art thou known to them! Playing and amusing themselves, they become the execration of God; and what play—what amusement is this? God, Who is all love, detests sin with infinite hatred. Should anything, therefore, be so shocking in our eyes, as this hellish monster!

3. A soul in the state of grace is beautiful beyond expression; it is a brilliant image of God Himself; the Holy Ghost animates it. But when mortal sin is allowed to infect it, this beauty is lost; this light is extinguished; the Divine Spirit departs; the devil takes possession; all then is darkness, filth, and deformity. A God dying was a dreadful spectacle, but mortal sin is yet more dreadful; for Christ died but to atone for sin, and sin can daily frustrate all His merits; He is crucified over and over; His blood is trampled upon by all those who commit sin.

[Detest, at this moment, all your sins; lament from your heart the loss of God's grace; there is no loss so much to be lamented; it is the only loss which sorrow can repair.]

What fruit had you in those things of which you are now ashamed. Rom. VI. 21.

Woe to that daring soul which hoped that having retired from Thee, it might still find something better. St. Augustine.

TWELFTH DAY.

Repentance.

1. "Repent and believe the Gospel," saith our Lord. He joins these two things to teach us that the rigors of penance and the profession of Christianity are inseparable. During His mortal life He was a penitent God, ever occupied in expiating our sins to appease the justice of His Father. Surely, we should follow His example. If the Holy of Holies fasted, prayed, and wept, what should not be done by such vile wretches as we are?

2. Sin must necessarily be punished, either by him who commits it, or by God, against Whom it is committed. If sinners do not punish themselves in time, Divine Justice will punish them in eternity. The flames of hell must punish what the waters of penance do not efface. Is it not better to weep for a few days than to burn for eternity?

3. To be reconciled with God, it is not enough to prostrate yourself before a Priest—to cover your head with ashes and your whole body with hair-cloth. If you have not a sincere sorrow for your sins, if you do not entirely renounce your criminal attachments, you are an impostor and not a penitent. Prayers, alms, fasting, all the macerations of the flesh are but the outside of repentance; the hatred of sin is the very spirit and essence of it.

[Implore God's mercy for having led hitherto a life so opposite to the Gospel, and beg of Him the grace to live for the future as the first Christians did in the constant practice of penance].

Except you do penance, you shall all likewise perish. Luke XIII. 5.

To penitents I say—to what purpose is it that you be humbled, if with this you be not changed? St. Augustine.

THIRTEENTH DAY.

Delay of Conversion.

1. I defer too long giving myself up to God. It would seem that I intended to escape from His hands. Is it then a misfortune to belong to Him?—To-morrow, to-morrow.—Why not to-day? Why not at this very moment? Will my chains be more easily broken to-morrow? Will my heart be less hard? no, certainly! Time that weakens almost everything will add new strength to bad habits. By putting off the remedy, the complaint becomes incurable.

2. What is it then that prevents our obeying the voice that calls us to repentance? What is it that terrifies us? There is great difficulty in changing our lives; this certainly must be granted; but what should not a Christian do who adores a crucified God, and who looks up to heaven? If we have anything to fear, it should be the abuse of God's graces.

3. The future—can I call it mine? Is it a possession I am master of? God waits for me, it is true,—the Scripture tells me so: but still it does not tell me how long I am to live. He that has promised pardon to those that repent, has not promised another day to those who continue in their vices. Perhaps I shall have time and perhaps I shall not;—must I not have lost my senses to rest my salvation upon a mere perhaps?

[Reflect now upon the time you have been deferring your conversion to God, and tremble at the sight of your danger.]

I said—Now have I begun. Psalm LXXVI. 11.

We cannot be too cautious where eternity is at stake. St. Gregory.

FOURTEENTH DAY.

Human Respect.

1. The world speaks—let it speak on. Should the talk of fools hinder you from being wise? But what will they say? They will say that you fear God more than you fear men. The greatest libertines will, in their souls, admire you and will say within themselves that you are doing right.

2. What cowardice, to blush at the Gospel! To wear the livery of a prince is held honorable. Is it shameful to wear that of Christ? The lowest mechanics make open profession of the trades they follow; and Christians in the Church will blush at being Christians! The Son of God will deny before His Father the Christian that before men shall have denied Him.

3. What, then! is there anything in Jesus that you should be ashamed of? Is His name infamous? Is it disgraceful to follow His maxims and example? You are not ashamed, perhaps, of being a libertine, a drunkard, a blasphemer—you even glory in it; and yet you will blush at being a good man. But let people say what they will, the man that is most to be esteemed is the man who serves God most faithfully and who openly professes to serve Him.

[Ask yourself seriously, whether the phantom of the world does not frighten you and prevent your fulfilling the obligations which the Christian religion imposes.]

I am not ashamed of the Gospel. Romans I. 16.

Why should you fear or be ashamed, when armed with the sign of the cross? St. Augustine.

FIFTEENTH DAY.

Diffidence in Ourselves.

1. We have nothing to fear so much as ourselves. Our own weakness is more alarming than all the powers of hell united. A thought, a word, a single look is enough to overcome us. Angels have rebelled—Adam hath fallen—Solomon has bowed to idols—Peter has denied his Master : when cedars have yielded, how shall frail reeds stand ?

2. Our heart is our most dangerous enemy. Our senses, our passions are ever conspiring against us. We are vanquished almost without a struggle. Let us then never be so foolish as to trust to ourselves. Many whom torments could not shake, have wretchedly perished in a slight temptation—victorious over tyrants, but conquered by concupiscence.

3. There is no man, how exemplary soever his conduct, that should not tremble at the justice of God ; for he cannot be certain, whether love or hatred be now in store for him. To the allseeing eye of infinite perfection, angels themselves shall not appear without blemish. Sanctity may be lost in a single moment, and the saint may be transformed into an odious reprobate. We should all, therefore, cry out with St. Philip Neri, “ Watch me, O Lord, this day, for abandoned to myself, I shall surely betray Thee.”

[Beware of the occasions of sin ; the most dangerous are often those of which you are least afraid.]

Let him that thinketh himself to stand, take heed lest he fall. 1 Cor. X. 12.

Though you be in a place of safety, do not on that account think yourself secure. St. Bernard.

SIXTEENTH DAY.

The Use of Divine Grace.

1. Whatever grace we have was dearly purchased. Our Saviour gave His blood for it. Therefore, to reject a pious thought, to resist a holy inspiration is, in fact, to trample on the merits of Christ, and to frustrate, as much as we can, the ends He proposed to Himself in dying for us.

2. We are accountable to God, not only for the graces we have received, but also for those which He intended to confer on us, if we ourselves had not put an obstacle to them. His sun shines; though we shut our windows against it, we are not less indebted to Him for its light; we may if we please make use of it.

3. Many years, perhaps, has God been inviting us in vain; soliciting, reprehending, threatening, to no manner of purpose. But let us remember that He is a creditor who will not be thus put off and that the longer our debt is unpaid, the more strictly will He require the interest. There is, possibly, a measure of sins, which being filled, God will at last abandon us.

[Thank the Almighty now, for all His gifts and graces. Beg pardon for having been unfaithful to them, and resolve to correspond with docility to all His suggestions for the future.]

Unto whomsoever much is given, of him much shall be required. Luke XII. 48.

Grace is followed by judgment. St. Basil.

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

The Employment of Time.

1. The loss of time is one of the greatest disorders in the world. This life is so short—all its moments so precious; yet we live as if it were never to end, or as if we had nothing to fear.

2. Alas! if a lost soul had but one single moment of the time we are squandering, what use would he make of it? Every instant of our life we may purchase a happy eternity. The opportunity of enriching or amusing ourselves we never miss, but the means of salvation appear indifferent to us.

3. The day which is best employed, is not always the one which has most forwarded our affairs, but that which has added most to our merits and which God has been best pleased with. Let us always so regulate our time, that God and our salvation may be our constant object

[Renew the resolution you have taken to serve God faithfully and be firmly persuaded that the time which is not employed for God is so much time lost forever.]

God hath given to no man time for sinning. Eccles. XV. 21.

You have leisure to be a philosopher—you have not leisure to be a Christian. St. Paulin.

EIGHTEENTH DAY.

The Use of the Sacraments.

1. The Sacraments are the channels of divine grace. Through them the merits of Christ abundantly flow. We must take care to approach them worthily, for otherwise His merits shall not be able to reach us, nor shall our salvation be possible.

2. The abuse of the Sacraments is a monstrous evil. They were instituted as a means of life, but are thus perverted to eternal death. There is no medium—they must be our food or our poison. How dreadful then to think that after so many confessions we are so little improved; that after repeated communions the same sinful course should still be followed!

3. The unworthy communicant receives his own condemnation, and becomes as it were incorporated with his own ruin. What shall he answer when called to an account for his baseness? How shall he escape when arraigned for his daring profanations?

[Examine yourself carefully upon the use you have made of the Sacraments, and receive them for the future as if death were immediately to follow.]

Let a man prove himself. 1 Cor. XI. 28.

There are bad Christians who are called by the name of faithful and are not such, by whom the Sacraments of Christ are dishonored and profaned. St. Augustine.

NINETEENTH DAY.

The Holy Mass.

1. A sacrifice is an exterior or visible offering made by a lawful minister to God alone, in testimony of His supreme dominion. Our absolute dependence upon God and the homage we owe Him, render sacrifice essential to religion. Hence, from the beginning of the world, it has been always offered. Abel, Noah, Melchisedech, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, have sacrificed to the Almighty and a variety of sacrifices were prescribed in the written law of Moses.

2. All these, however, were only weak figures of the sacrifice of Christ upon the cross. For sin was too great an evil, its guilt was of too black a die to be ever effaced by the blood of sheep and oxen. No other atonement could possibly compensate for it than the invaluable sufferings of a God. Therefore did He come. In the head of the book it was written of Him that He should do the will of His Father. By the oblation of Himself He paid off all our debts. He closed up the abyss of separation, cancelled the handwriting of sin that lay against us and the sanctified He perfected forever.

3. Was not this enough? Most undoubtedly it was. Nay, one drop of His blood was fully adequate for all these purposes. Why then is the same sacrifice daily renewed in the Mass? Why is He still immolated upon our altars? Why is His body mystically drained of His blood by the separate consecration of the two species? Because His love for us would have it so. He would leave us a standing memorial of His death. He would daily apply to our souls the infinite merits of it; just as He prays for us still, though His prayer on the cross was already heard for us. He would as priest forever, according to the order of Melchisedech, continue to the end of time the same unbloody sacrifice. He was willing that His faithful on earth, united not only in spirit but in outward ties of religion, should ever have this sacrifice before them as the strongest bond of love, and the most perfect act of adoration.

[Make a resolution to hear Mass every day, and to hear it with the devotion which so august a sacrifice requires. For this purpose, go to the church as you would to Mount Calvary; adore Jesus Christ in this state of humiliation; pay Him your homage, at the foot of the altar. It is a shame for us, and most displeasing to Him, that He is so deserted in the midst of our Churches and that His court is empty, while kings on earth have their levees crowded.]

In every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to My name a clean offering. Malac. I. 2.

He will then be our Victim indeed, when we sacrifice ourselves to Him. St. Gregory.

TWENTIETH DAY.

Alms.

1. We minister to Christ when we relieve the poor. He abides in the Eucharist to receive our adoration and to become our nourishment. He abides in the poor to excite our compassion and to be fed by us in our turn. Happy the man who gives alms to Jesus Christ but wretched is he who refuses to assist Him.

2. What we give to the great ones of the earth may mostly be considered as forfeited; but what we present to God is always attended with advantage: He gives it back with interest; He repays with liberality the crumbs that are given for His sake; His rewards are laid up, even for the cup of water. Play, luxury, and debauch have ruined innumerable families, but alms have impoverished no one.

3. Men at the day of judgment shall be accountable for their alms; but what answer can the unfeeling rich make when the poor shall accuse them? When Jesus Christ Himself shall reproach them with their insensibility? "Depart from Me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, for I was hungry and you gave Me not to eat; I was naked, and you did not clothe Me," &c. A heart that is hard to the poor is the heart of a reprobate; but, on the contrary, a soul that is truly charitable is a soul predestined. And what can our Judge say against us when He shall see our clothes upon Himself—when He shall see our bread and our money in His own hands? We may approach this awful tribunal with confidence provided the poor be our advocates.

[Consider seriously how you behave to the poor; whether you treat them as members of Christ, and do them all the good in your power.]

He that hath mercy on the poor lendeth to the Lord and He will repay him. Prov. XIX. 17.

Give unto all, lest he whom you refuse be Jesus Himself. St. Augustine.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY.

Example.

1. Bad example has damned more souls than all the saints together were ever able to save. Were the gates of hell to be laid open, scarcely could any one be found that would not say: It is such or such a one that has damned me. What a reproach! We are commanded to love our enemies; why then should we destroy souls, who have never done us an injury? A man who has been unfortunate enough to ruin souls, redeemed by the blood of a God, has much cause to fear for his salvation. What can we reasonably hope from Jesus Christ after having torn from Him what He has so dearly purchased?

2. O fathers and mothers, who do not live as Christians ought to do, it were far better for your children that they had not been born! You have given them life only to put them to death—to that dreadful death which is eternal! When they shall require of you the heaven they have lost, what will you be able to answer them?

3. Let us clothe ourselves with Jesus Christ, according to the words of the Apostle. Let His conduct, His virtue and His spirit shine forth in us, so that He may be remembered when we are seen. We contribute not less to our neighbor's salvation by an edifying life, than to his damnation by a scandalous one.

[Be very careful to do nothing that may scandalize your neighbor, and humbly beg pardon of God for the sins you have occasioned.]

Woe to that man by whom scandal cometh. St. Matt. XVII. 7.

The scandalous sinner must answer for the crimes which his bad example hath caused to be committed. Salvian.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY.

Mortification.

1. We are not Christians to be rich and to live at our ease. If such were the case, the world might have been left as it was, under the empire of passion and opinion. The life of a Christian is a crucified life; unless the cross be loved, faith must be renounced.

2. What does the Gospel say? Blessed are ye that weep—Woe to you that are rich! for you have your consolation. Luke vi. 21, 24. Such is the language of the Holy Ghost. But it is now looked upon as nonsense to believe that felicity consists in tears, and that the rich are unhappy.

3. The Son of God was to die on the cross that He might take possession of His glory. The saints have arrived at heaven only by the path of sufferings. Shall we then imagine that what the Son of God and the saints have so dearly purchased shall be given to us for nothing? The cross is the distinctive mark and portion of the elect. A soul which suffers nothing and is resolved to suffer nothing, has the strongest character of a reprobate. We must necessarily suffer, either in this world or in the next.

[Adore Christ crucified and beg of Him the grace to participate now in His suffering life, that you may one day participate in His life of glory.]

Whosoever doth not carry his cross and come after Me, cannot be My disciple. Luke XIV. 27.

What a shame to be the delicate member of a head crowned with thorns. St. Bernard.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY,

Conformity to the Will of God.

1. The greatest happiness of a reasonable creature is to will that which its Creator willeth; it is in this precisely that real sanctity consists. The saints are saints only because their will is in conformity with the will of God. Whatever virtue we may have, if we have not this, we are not truly virtuous.

2. A soul that is not satisfied with the will of God, seems to doubt in some measure of His authority. To desire that what He ordains and permits in this world should go on otherwise than it does, is to desire that God should not be master. Every thing that happens to us happens by His order; and is it not just to acquiesce in whatever is ordained by an infinite wisdom?

3. All things but sin fall out by God's appointment. Though His arm be raised to strike, we are sure that His hand is directed by His heart. What have we to fear from a heart that loves us? We will then desire nothing but what He pleases. We will not complain of losses, illness, troubles, &c. The name and nature of these things are changed, as they pass through the hands of God. What the world calls misfortune, affliction, dishonor, is an advantage, a grace and a favor from heaven, when considered in the order of Providence.

[Renounce your will, and beg of God that His may be accomplished in you.]

*Yea, Father! for so it hath seemed good in Thy sight.
Matt. XI. 26.*

He is pleasing to God, to whom God is pleasing. St. Augustine.

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY.

Confidence in God.

1. God is the great Father of mankind; our Lord Jesus Christ has taught us to call Him so. Not even a hair shall drop from our heads, without His knowledge. His providence reaches from end to end, disposing all things sweetly. What madness, therefore, to doubt of His protection or to be slow in trusting to His guidance!

2. The insects are an object of His care; much more we who are created to His image, and redeemed by the blood of His only-begotten Son. God feeds the infidels who know Him not; He heaps favors on the impious by whom He is blasphemed. What will He not do for Christians who honor and love Him?

3. Our affairs are much better off in His hands than they could be in our own. Let us leave all to Him : He is at once our Father and our Creator. The tenderness He has for His children, obliges Him to take care of them. He has promised us His protection; He will be as good as His word. Sooner shall the heavens and the earth be destroyed than a man perish whose confidence is in God !

[Examine your heart and see whether your confidence be worthy the goodness of God and the merits of Jesus Christ]

Thou art my God: my lots are in Thy hands. Psalm XXX. 16.

Throw yourself upon Him; He will not withdraw to let you fall. St. Augustine.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY.

The love of God.

1. God has loved us so far as to give us His only Son. If He had had any thing better, He would have given it to us. Is it not purchasing our love very dearly to purchase it at this rate? A trifling bounty is entitled to our love: why then shall we not love a bounty that is infinite? What! does its being infinite render it less amiable?

2. God commands me to love Him. Is that commandment rigorous, which orders us to love what is infinitely worthy of our affections? He commands us to love Him with all our hearts. Is a heart so small too much for a God so great? But in saying all, He admits of no exception. Whatever share I give Him, if I give Him not all, I give Him nothing.

3. If eternity could have an end, the torments of hell, even in the judgment of the damned, would not be too much to obtain His heavenly love. There is not one of those miserable souls, that would not think itself happy, if after ages of suffering it could love that infinite beauty. We can love God if we please; every moment invites us to it: not to do so while it can be done is a monstrous insensibility.

[Disclaim every love but that of God alone, and endeavor to love Him above all things.]

If I have not charity I am nothing. I. Corinth. XIII. 2.

If we had a difficulty to love God first, we certainly should have none to love Him after He has loved us: St. Augustine.

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY.

The Love of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

1. Nothing was ever purchased at so dear a rate as my soul. A divine life was given to redeem it. I deserved hell; justice cried out for punishment: but Christ would listen only to His heart. It pleaded in my behalf and obtained forgiveness. If I return Him not life for life, the least I can do is to return Him love for love.

2. Jesus has given His blood for me and continues to give Himself; yet I am still insensible.

3. We can feel for our friends; we are not insensible to the good they do us; we pique ourselves upon gratitude. Shall we be ungrateful only to Christ? Shall He alone find us hard-hearted? Had we ever a friend that sacrificed himself for us?

[Beg the love of Jesus from Jesus Himself. Without His grace we shall never be able to love Him.]

If any man love not our Lord Jesus, let him be anathema. I Cor. XVI. 22.

If I owe myself entirely for having been created, what shall I add for having been redeemed and redeemed in so excellent a manner! St. Bernard.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY.

The Love of our Neighbor.

1. If we love not our neighbor, we cannot love God. Whatever good we do, it is all nothing if we do not love our brethren. Even martyrdom itself will not avail us without charity.

2. "This is My commandment," said Jesus, "that ye love one another, as I have loved you." (St. John, xv. 12.) Had mankind nothing else than Christ's love to endear them, they are objects of esteem for that very reason. If our Saviour has loved them, will we refuse to do so?

3. Do we love all men as Christ has loved them? Do we thirst for their salvation as He did?

[Exite yourself to love those whom our Lord Jesus Christ has loved so tenderly. Firmly purpose to promote their salvation, and never to do what may offend against charity.]

He that loveth his neighbor, hath fulfilled the law. Rom. XIII. 8.

By charity alone, the children of God are distinguished from the children of Satan. St. Augustine.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.

Forgiveness of Injuries.

1. Jesus has given the commandment and set the example. A God orders this; shall we find it hard to obey? A God forgives His very executioners and we refuse to pardon a brother!

2. He that will not forgive shall not be forgiven. God will not pardon us but as we pardon others. If we seek revenge we call down God's anger upon us. We must either love our enemies or hate ourselves.

3. It would seem that two Christians who hate each other are not really professors of the same religion; for can they approach the same altar, eat the same food, believe in the same heaven, and hope to be together eternally? Mutual hatred is allowed but to the devils—it belongs to them alone. There is not a more formal sign of reprobation than refusing to pardon; and a soul with that mark may be looked on as marked for hell.

[Examine your heart at the sight of the Crucifix; and if you feel a hatred for any person, take sentiments of charity from the wounds of Jesus.]

Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer. 1. St. John, III. 15.

You, a Christian, desire to be revenged! but Christ hath not yet taken vengeance. St. Augustine.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY.

The Imitation of our Lord.

1. The Son of God when He united His divinity to our human nature, became the model of Christians. He is the head of the predestined; we are therefore bound to resemble Him.

2. The manners of the world are carefully studied; the life of Jesus Christ is hardly thought upon. Courtiers form themselves upon their prince; philosophers have been imitated even in their faults. Did we ever seriously strive to imitate Jesus? Have we taken any pains to follow His example, or copy the virtues of His holy life?

3. What shall we say for ourselves at the awful tribunal of divine justice, when we shall be compared to our model? When the life of Jesus shall be opposed to our life? His humility to our pride, His wounds to our delicacy, His sweetness to our anger and impatience? Ah! what a monster is a Christian without Christianity! Baptized! and a slave of the devil! Under the banner of the Cross! yet a follower of the flesh, and of the world! We must then renounce our baptism, or conform to the life of our Saviour.

[See whether you bear any resemblance to the Son of God, and whether you may be truly considered as a disciple of a crucified Jesus.]

Master, I will follow Thee whithersoever Thou shalt go.
St. Matt. VIII. 19.

Without cause am I a Christian, if I follow not Christ? St. Bernard.

THIRTIETH DAY.

Fervor in the Service of God.

1. Let us have as much zeal for God as He has for us; He acts exteriorly, only for the perfection of our souls. All the desires of His heart; all the cares of His providence; all the tenderness of His mercy are referred to this. What a subject of confusion for tepid souls.

2. Were we to judge of God by our own indifference, it might be said that He does not deserve our services and that His rewards are very trifling. What idea can be had of a master, whose servants attend him carelessly and without the slightest affection? We dishonor God, we cry down His service, as often as we perform negligently what He requires of us. Woe be to the man who does the work of God without attention!

3. An action done for God, how trifling soever it be, is of far greater value than all the exploits of heroes. If we pique ourselves upon so much courage in laboring for vanity, what should be done when we are employed for eternity! — What! the servants of the devil spare no pains; they do not complain of what they go through; they are ever indefatigable: is Jesus Christ less considerable than the devil? Is paradise less valuable than hell? Hell, then, shall be, as it were, our instructor. We are to love God, as much as the damned hate Him: we are to serve God, as the world serves the devil. Is this too much?

[Examine your conduct with regard to the service of God. Consider the actions you are most remiss in, and excite yourself to perform them with a fervor worthy of your Master.]

In fervent spirit, serving the Lord! Rom. XII. 2.

THIRTY-FIRST DAY.

Devotion to the Mother of God.

1. A purer, a more excellent, or a more amiable being than this glorious Virgin was never yet created. God having from all eternity destined her to be the Mother of His Son, it was proper she should be embellished with every created excellence and that her dignity and influence in heaven should far surpass the dignity and influence of all the other saints. Most justly then is she entitled to our veneration, respect and confidence.

2. We will put ourselves under her protection; we will recommend ourselves to her prayers. How great soever our wickedness, how numerous soever our faults shall have been, we will always have recourse to her and hope, through her prayers, for the grace of our conversion. Her charity is so great, her interest is so powerful that she must always plead successfully for the repenting sinner.

3. But let us never forget that to honor her properly is to imitate her virtues: that to persevere in sin upon the hopes of her future intercession is most absurd, impious, and detestable. Her hatred of this evil should be always before our eyes; her purity, her mildness, her patience, should ever be present to us.

Hail, full of grace. St. Luke, I. 28.

O name! under which no one should despair. St. Augustine.

FOR THE FIRST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH.

The Sacred Heart.

1. The Love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus for me shows itself by deeds: He abases Himself to raise me up; He divests Himself to enrich me; He drinks to the dregs the chalice of suffering, to rescue me from torments without end; He condemns Himself to a life of privations and sacrifices, in order to show me the road to eternal happiness; He wears on His own head the crown of thorns, to place on mine the crown of glory; He dies the death of the cross to purchase for me the life of heaven. Yes, for me. In living, suffering and immolating Himself for all, He does it for each one in particular, as if that one only were to be saved. The Son of God loved me, says St. Paul, and delivered Himself up for me. Galat. II. 20. "What is there that I ought to do more to my vineyard, that I have not done?" asks the Lord by the mouth of His prophet.—Isaias V. 4.

2. There is no more that He ought to do, but there is much more that He has done. At the moment that His enemies are banding together to condemn Him to a most cruel death, He is instituting the august Sacrament of the Altar, by which to give them life, and to tarry with the children of men until the end of time.—In Bethlehem had He given Himself to us as our Brother; on Calvary was He to give Himself as our ransom, in Heaven as our reward: it remained but to give Himself, in every corner of the earth as the food of our souls, throughout the whole term of our exile. The outrages, sacrileges and profanations to which this excess of love will expose Him are not weighed in the balance for a moment; the coldness and indifference with which it will be met, even on the part of those who profess to believe, and who say they love, cannot chill His affection: at all costs, His Sacred Heart must beat alongside of ours, in the Sacrament of His love.

3. What have I done for the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in return for all He has done for me? He hath looked that my soul should bring forth good grapes, and it hath produced only briars and thorns. Isaias V. 4. My Jesus, mercy! What shall I do in future? I shall in future pray hard that I may die rather than again crucify my Lord and Saviour. I shall pray hard to know the Sacred Heart of Jesus better, and to realize, in all its fulness, what it is to have Him for a Friend. I shall run to Him in all my trials and temptations; I shall bear them patiently for His sake. I shall talk to Him as intimately and familiarly as I possibly can; I shall tell Him all about my hopes and my fears, my plans and my desires. I shall try to receive Him often at the Holy Table; and labor, by His grace, that each Communion may be the weakening of at least one of my bad habits, the death of at least one imperfection, and the tracing of at least one of His features in my soul. Especially shall I have unbounded confidence in His love: never allowing myself to be discouraged, no matter how weak I may be, or how often, even, I may fall: convinced that to waver in my confidence is a far greater sin than the sin that occasioned my wavering; a wound to the most sensitive fibre of the Sacred Heart.

[Take one very definite resolution for the day.]

*O Sweetest Heart of Jesus! I implore
That I may ever love Thee, more and more.*

Sweet Heart of Jesus, be my salvation!

My sweetest Jesus, be not my Judge but my Saviour.

THE LITTLE OFFICE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Hail, city of refuge!
Hail, David's high tower
With battlement crowned
And girded with power

Filled at thy Conception
With love and with light
The dragon by thee
Was shorn of his might.

O woman most valiant!
O Judith thrice blest!
As David was nursed
In fair Abisag's breast;

As the saviour of Egypt
Upon Rachel's knee;
So the world's great Redeemer
Was cherished by thee.

Hymn.

Salve horológium,
 Quo retrogradiátur
 Sol in decem lineis;
 Verbum incarnátur.

Homo ut ab ínferis
 Ad summa attollátur,
 Imménsus ab ángelis,
 Paulo minorátur.

Solis hujus rádiis
 María corúscat;
 Consúrgens auróra
 In concéptu micat.

Hail, dial of Achaz !
 On thee the true Sun
 Told backward the course Which from old He had run !

And, that man might be raised,
 Submitting to shame,
 A little more low
 Than the angels became.

Thou, rapt in the blaze
 Of His infinite light,
 Dost shine as the morn
 On the confines of night;

Lilium inter spinas,
 Quæ serpéntis cónterat
 Caput : pulchra ut luna
 Errántes collústrat.

Hail, Mother most pure!
Hail, Virgin renowned!
Hail, Queen with the stars,
As a diadem, crowned.

Above all the Angels
In glory untold,
Standing next to the King
In a vesture of gold!

O Mother of mercy!
O star of the wave!
O hope of the guilty!
O light of the grave!

Through thee may we come
To the haven of rest;
And see heaven's King
In the courts of the blest!

THE COMMENDATION.

Súpplices offérimus
Tibi, Virgo pia,
Hæc laudum præcónia:
Fac nos ut in via

Ducas cursu próspero;
Et in agonía
Tu nobis assíste,
O dulcis María.

Amen.

R. Deo gratias.

These praises and prayers
I lay at thy feet,
O Virgin of virgins!
O Mary most sweet!

Be thou my true guide
Through this pilgrimage here;
And stand by my side
When death draweth near.

Amen.

R. Thanks be to God.

THE LITTLE OFFICE OF THE HOLY ANGELS.

AT MATINS.

Ant. God hath given His Angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. Amen.

V. O Lord, open Thou my lips.

R. And my mouth shall declare Thy praise.

Praise we those ministers celestial
Whom the dread Father chose
To be defenders of our nature frail,
Against our scheming foes.

Ant. O Holy Angels! our guardians, defend us in the combat, that we perish not in the dreadful judgment.

V. In the sight of the Angels, I will sing to Thee, my God.

R. I will adore at Thy holy temple, and confess unto Thy name.

Let us pray.

O God, Who with unspeakable providence hast vouchsafed to appoint Thy Holy Angels to be our guardians, grant to Thy humble suppliants, to be always defended by their protection, and to enjoy their everlasting society. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, forever and ever. Amen.

PROMISES MADE BY OUR LORD TO BLESSED MARGARET MARY IN FAVOR OF PERSONS DEVOTED TO HIS SACRED HEART.

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.

2. I will establish peace in their families.

3. I will console them in all their pains and trials.

4. I will be their assured refuge in life and especially in death.

5. I will shed abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.

6. Sinners shall find in My Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.

7. Lukewarm souls will be rendered fervent.

8. Fervent souls shall rise rapidly to greater perfection.

9. I will bless those houses where the image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.

10. I will give to priests the talent of moving the hardest hearts.

11. Persons, who propagate this devotion, shall have their names inscribed in My Heart and they shall never be effaced from it.

PART I.

English and Latin Hymns.

No. 1. O God, the Object of my Love.

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS XAVIER.

1. O God, Thou art the ob-ject of my love,
2. For me, and such as me, Thou once didst bear
3. I or me in torture Thou resign'st Thy breath,
4. Such as then was, and is Thy love to me,

1. Not for the hope of end-less joys a - bove,
2. The ig - no - minious cross, the nails, the spear;
3. Nail'd to the cross, and sav'dst me by Thy death,
4. Such is, and shall be still my love for Thee;

1. Nor for the fear of end-less pains be - low,
2. A thorny crown transpierc'd Thy sacred brow;
3. Say: can these suff'rings fail my heart to move?
4. Thy love, O Je - sus, will I ev - er sing—

1. Which those who love Thee not must un - der - go.
2. What blood-y sweats from ev - 'ry member flow!
3. What but Thy-self can now de - serve my love?
4. O God of love, sweet Saviour, dearest King!

No. 2. Prayer of St. Ignatius.

1. I love Thee, O Thou Lord most high,
2. May mem - o - ry no thought sug - gest,
3. My God! I here pro - test to Thee,
4. All mine is Thine, say but the word,
5. A - part from Thee, all things are naught,

1. Be - cause Thou first hast lov - ed me;
2. But shall to Thy pure glo - ry tend;
3. No oth - er will have I than Thine,
4. What - e'er 'Thou will - est shall be done;

 Laud and honor to the Son;
 Laud and honor to the Spirit;
 Ever three, and ever One;
 Consubstantial, co-eternal,
 While unending ages run.

Libera me is repeated as far as the V. Tremens.

The responsory ended, the Cantor, with the first choir, chants:

And the second choir responds:

Then all together chant:

The priest says in PART III.

Vespers.

THE COMMON OF VESPERS.

Deus in Adjutorium.

I. On Double and Semi-Double Feasts.

De - us, in ad - ju - tó - ri - um me - um in - tén - de. R. Dó - mi - ne, ad adjuvándum me festína.

Glória Patri, et Fílio, et Spíritui san - cto:

Sicut erat in princípío, et nunc, et semper, et in sáecula saeculórum. A - men. Al - le - lú - ia.

This Alleluia is sung throughout the whole year, except from Septuagesima Sunday until Holy Thursday, when the following is substituted:

Laus tibi Dómine, Rex aetérnae gló - ri - ae.

Deus in Adjutorium is followed by five Psalms and Antiphons. Every Psalm is intoned by two or four chanters, according to the degree of the Feast; they sing the first half of the first verse, which is then taken up and finished by the choir or first chorus. The people or second chorus sing the second verse, beginning it immediately on the reciting note. The remaining verses of the Psalm are sung alternately by the two choirs, beginning always on the reciting note.

At the end of the 5th Psalm the Priest sings the Chapter, and the people answer Deo gratias, thus:

Tone of the Chapter.

Misit Heródes etc. ut apprehénderet et

Pe - trum. R. De - o grá - ti - as.

Then follows the Hymn, which varies with almost every Vesper office. An organ interlude may be substituted for the singing of the even verses, 2, 4, etc., provided some one is appointed to recite the verses during or after the interlude. The Hymn is followed by the Versicle, which is sung to these modes:

Tone of the Versicle.

I. On a Double Feast.

V. Hauriétis aquas in gáudio, o,
R. De fóntibus Salvatóris, i,

o.
i - - - s.

II. On a Semi-Double Feast.

V. Dirigátur, Dómine, | orátio me - a,
 R. Sicut incénsum | in conspéctu tu - o, a.

 o.

This mode is also used on Solemn Feasts, Doubles and Semi-doubles, for the V. & R. at Compline (Custodi nos etc.)

The Versicle is followed by the Antiphon to Magnificat, and by the Canticle Magnificat itself, which is sung slowly and with more solemnity than the Psalms, Here again an organ interlude may be substituted for the singing of the even verses.

After the repetition of the Antiphon, the Priest sings:

Dominus vobiscum, etc.

V. Dóminus vo - bís - cum. After the prayer.
 R. Et cum spíri:u tu - o. A - men.

Then follow the Commemorations, if any are to be made; they are sung to this music.

Tone of the Commemorations.

V. Angelus Dómini nuntiávit
 R. Et concépit de Spíritu

Marí-ae.
 san - cto.

N. A.—When the final word of the Versicle or Response is a monosyllable, or when the accent falls on the last syllable of the final word, the conclusion is altered as follows:

V. Angelis suis Deus mandávit de te.
R. Ut custódiat te in ómnibus viis tu-is.

Commemoration of the Holy Cross.

During Paschal Time.

From the Second Sunday after Easter until the Ascension, the following Commemoration is made, both in the office of the Season and in that of the Saints, unless the Feast is double or within an Octave.

V. Dícite in natió nibus, allelúia.
R. Quia Dóminus regnáv it a ligno, allelúia,

Suffragia.

Of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

V. Ora pro nobis, sancta Dei Génitrix.
R. Ut digni efficiámur promissiónibus Christi.

From the Octave of the Epiphany until the Purification, the following is said:

V. Post partum, Virgo, invioláta permansísti.
R. Dei Génitrix, intercède pro nobis.

Of Saint Joseph.

V. Glória et divítiae in domo ejus.
R. Et justítia ejus manet in saeculum saeculi.

Of the Apostles.

V. Constitues eos príncipes super omnem terram.
R. Mémoires erunt nóminis tui, Dómine.

The Commemoration of the Patron Saint of the Church is made either before or after the above, according to the dignity of the Saint.

For Peace.

V. Fiat pax in virtúte tua.

R. Et abundantia in túribus tuis.

The above Suffragia are said from the Octave of Pentecost until Advent, and from the Octave of Epiphany until Passion Sunday. When the Office of the Blessed Virgin is said, no other Commemoration of her is made.

After the prayers the Priest repeats Dominus vobiscum; then two or more chanters sing Benedicamus Domino to the following modes:

Tones of the Benedicamus.

I. From the Vespers of Holy Saturday until the following Saturday (exclusive.)

V. Be - ne - di - cá - mus Dó - mi - no, al - le -

(LA-SI.)

Then the Celebrant sings in a subdued tone:

Fidelium Animae.

Here begins Compline, if it is to be sung; if it is omitted the Celebrant continues:

Fater noster. (In a low voice,) vitam aetérnam. A - men.

Then follows one of the Antiphons of the Bl. Virgin, and the Celebrant concludes with

COMPLINE.

The Lector begins:

The Officiant answers:

Jube, domne, bene-dí-ce-re. Noctem quiétam, et finem perféctum concédât nobis Dóminus o - mní-

Lector:

po - tens. R. A - men. Fratres, Sóbrii estóte,

Pater noster. (Said in a low voice.)

Then the Officiant says the Confiteor:

Confíteor Deo omnipoténti, etc.

The Choir respond:

Misereátur tui omnípotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis tuis, perdúcat te ad vitam aetérnam.—R. Amen.

Then the Choir recite the Confíteor.

Confíteor Deo omnípoténti, beátae Maríae semper Virgini, beáto Michaéli Archángelo, beáto Joánni Baptistae, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus Sanctis, et tibi, pater: quia peccávi nimis cogitatióne, verbo, et ópere: mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beátam Mariam semper Virginem, beátum Michaélem Archángelum, beátum Joánnem Baptistam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te, pater, oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

The Officiant says:

Misereátur vestri omnípotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis vestris, perdúcat vos ad vitam aetérnam.—R. Amen.

Indulgéntiam, absolutiónem, et remissionem peccatórum nostrórum tríbuat nobis omnípotens et miséricors Dóminus.—R. Amen.

cors Dóminus, Pater, et Filius, et Spírítus sanctus.

V. Amen. (Without inflexion of tone.)

Fidelium animae is not said. One of the antiphons of the B. V. M., according to the season, immediately follows, and at the end without any inflexion of tone is sung, in a subdued tone.

V. Divínium auxílium máneat semper nobíscum.

R. Amen.

THE BURIAL OF ADULTS.

BEFORE leaving the house of the deceased, the officiant begins the Antiphon Si Iniquitates, after which the chanters sing the Psalm De Profundis, p. 682. The Antiphon is repeated after the Psalm; then going from the house to the church the Miserere is sung as on p. 722.

Here begins the Office of the Dead, if it is to be sung. After the Benedictus and its Antiphon follow the Prayers, p. 370, and then the Mass, p. 351.

At the conclusion of the Mass and Libera, if the body is to be taken to the cemetery, the clergy accompany it, singing the following Antiphon,

In pa - ra - dí - sum de - dú - cant te An - ctórum, per misericórdiam Dei, requiéscant in pace.

R. Amen.

They return from the cemetery to the church, reciting (not singing) the Psalm De Profundis, with its Antiphon Si Iniquitates, p. 682 B.

APPENDIX.

The Way of the Cross.

(BEFORE THE ALTAR.)

Je - sus, my Love, is cru - ci - fied!

My sin His cross hath made: On Him my sin was laid. O then, by

Ma - ry's side, Where Thy bleed - ing feet have gone, Je - su, lead on!

FIRST STATION.

Jesus, my Love is judged by men!
 O hateful sin was mine:
 Jesu, the shame is Thine.
 O then with Magdalen,
 Weep, my heart, thy Saviour's doom
 Unto the tomb.

SECOND STATION.

Jesus, my Love, His cross now bears!
 His bleeding shoulders see:
 My sin weighs heavily.
 God's grief His Mother shares;
 Mary, where He laden trod,
 Lead us to God.

THIRD STATION.

Jesus, my Love, falls to the ground!
 Him hath my sin o'erthrown;
 Break then, my heart of stone!
 In tears and sorrow drowned,
 Bring me, Mother, where He goes
 Bearing my woes.

FOURTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, His Mother greets!
 O Virgin, that Him bare,
 For me thy Son is there:
 And through the cruel streets
 Jesus takes His bitter road
 Beneath my load.

FIFTH STATION

Jesus, my Love, His burden shares!
 Mine was the sin He paid:
 Jesu, be mine to aid.
 O happy he that fares
 Patiently beneath the cross,
 When sorrows toss.

SIXTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, His face hath given
 Face angels long to see,
 Worn now so piteously!
 Till glorious seen in heaven,
 All Thy wounded Face impart
 To the aching heart.

SEVENTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, falls to the ground:
 Again by sin o'erthrown:
 Break, break, O heart of stone!
 In tears, O Mother, drowned,
 Lead where Jesus weary goes
 Beneath my woes.

EIGHTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, hath heard their moan:
 "God's wrath the green hath burned;
 "How shall the dry be turned?"
 Fall, tears, from eyes of stone.
 Wail, Jerusalem, thy sons,
 Thine evil ones.

NINTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, falls to the earth !
 Again sin weighs Him down :
 Sin wove His thorny crown.
 Of tears can there be dearth,
 Where again my Jesus rose
 Beneath my woes.

TENTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, is put to shame !
 Shall He my pain endure,
 Of me, vile and impure ?
 O then, in Jesu's name,
 Weep, my soul, flee as from death
 Sin's poison breath.

ELEVENTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, is wounded sore !
 Love nails Him to the cross,
 To save me from my loss.
 Heart then, let nevermore
 Lust and pride in thee begin
 The work of sin.

TWELFTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, is crucified !
 For me the lance hath cleft
 His Heart, of life bereft.
 O, in that, Sacred Side
 From all sin my Jesu, free,
 Bring me to Thee.

THIRTEENTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, to Mary is given !
 Him sin and sorrow slew :
 O day of suffering through !
 Then, by that bitter even,
 Mother, through our day of life
 Shield in the strife.

FOURTEENTH STATION.

Jesus, my Love, lies in the tomb!
Low lieth there that I
To all but Him may die.
Grave, where is now thy gloom?
Sweetly here thy vigils keep,
My soul, to weep.

BEFORE THE ALTAR.

Jesus, my Love, is crucified!
Fain would I enter in,
Free from all stain and sin,
Where Thy Heart openeth wide,
Jesu, wounded, there to be Ever with Thee.
